

4 in Race for County Drain Chief

The 20 candidates of principal concern to Birmingham-Bloomfield voters in the Aug. 7 primary election are those who face a contest on their respective party tickets for the office of U. S. congressman from the 18th district; lieutenant governor, state senator from the 12th district; state representative from the fourth district; county sheriff and county drain commissioner.

DEMOCRATS

ROY J. RUSSELL (D)

"Oakland County currently is indebted approximately $50 million dollars for drainage projects. The drain commissioner, as chairman of the various drainage boards, is entrusted by the public to see that public funds are carefully spent.

REPUBLICANS

DANIEL T. BERRY (D)

"I advocate raising inspection standards to halt pollution and protect health, abolishing discriminatory hiring practices and cut the appalling absenteeism established by this administration."

Candidates (Queried)

By Oakland LWV

By Oakland LWV

ART BECKER (R)

One of the basic problems connected with the office of Drain Commissioner is that there has not been a proper relationship between the Commissioner and his employees.

COUNTY

By Oakland LWV

The following questions were asked of county, state and federal candidates by the League of Women Voters of Oakland County:

Three Compete for Sheriff's Post on Democratic Ticket

KENNETH G. HIRT (D)

"The big problem I believe, is that of personnel which has been a problem for quite some time, in fact since before the present Sheriff took office.

Directions for Use Of Voting Machines

Move the red handle to the right until the bell rings. Leave the handle in the center.

Two Republicans In 4th District Legislative Race

RAYMOND L. BAKER (R)

"I did not feel that an income tax, as it was proposed this year, was the answer to our financial problems in the state of Michigan.

4th District Seat Sought by 3 Dems

ARCHIE H. BAILEY (D)

"I favor a flat-rate state income tax on food and drugs; giving business meaningful relief by eliminating the personal property tax on machines and tools; eliminating the inequitable siting of the tax on smokers, telephone users, and others hit by nuisance taxes pay, by themselves, an exorbitant 30% of their revenues.

South Oakland Drain Link Nears Reality

ALBERT A. KRAMER (D)

"Primarily, an understanding of the limits of our productive capacity, the extent of our assumption of responsibility, whether individual or community wise and the nature and the volume of services necessary and demanded to be furnished by government.

Republican Trio In Contest for 12th Senate Slot

ROBERT J. HUBER (R)

"The industrial climate must be changed to make it attractive and profitable to do business in this State.

2 Democrats Race For Federal Post In 18th District

GEORGE FULKERSON (D)

"The President should be delegated broad authority to negotiate agreements with the nations of the world. The goal of these agreements should be a gradual reduction of tariffs and quota restrictions. To the extent of any such action results in damage to industry or labor, then such programs should also assist such segments of the American economy to re-invent, relocate or re-train."

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.

Republicans Vie For Lt. Governor

Three Republicans are running for lieutenant governor. They are Clarence A. Reid, Rockwell T. Gust and John H. S. Stahlin.

Two Attend College Writers Workshop

John McCullough, 1327 N. Glenhurst and Marilyn Dick, 380 Aspen, Detroit, will attend a workshop at high school juniors through the state that attended a two-week summer writers' workshop at the University of Michigan.

Area Resident Heads Drive for Law Center

The project to build a legal center in Detroit was called 'monumental in character' by the Detroit Council of Lawyers, which is headed by Henry L. Woolfenden, 1575 Kensington.

County Accountants Back to School

James Gliese, director of the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has announced meeting plans for the coming season 1962-63.

Highway Department Announces County Building Projects

Low bids on 48 highway construction projects totaled $12,270,972 at last week's State Highway Department bid opening.