Students Hear Hosteling Talk

Detroit Country Day students heard a talk on youth hosteling by a young Swiss student currently studying in the United States. His studies are sponsored by the American Youth Hostels on the Foreign Leadership-Scholarship program.

The student, Mr. Ernest Lobsig, is working on the equivalent of a Ph.D. in Modern Languages and Journalism at the University of Zurich and also serves as Editor of the youth page of a Zurich newspaper.

IN HIS CAPACITY as a reporter, he has been sending home daily accounts of his travels in the U.S. to the various cities having Youth Hostel chapters. One of the highlights of his visit will be a leadership training course under AYH sponsorship in Bantam Lake, Connecticut.

On his return to Europe, Mr. Lobsig will take with him a group of 9 or 10 American students for a 12-week hosteling trip through Switzerland, Greece, Italy, England, and France.

Be sure you collect all you should if your home burns

A fire doesn't always happen to the other fellow.

It could happen to your home—tonight! If it did, could you give an accounting of every household furnishing and every piece of personal property lost in the fire... with the actual value of each? You would have to... to establish your insurance claim. Compiling a complete list of your losses after a fire is an almost impossible task.

On the other hand, the procedure is quite simple—if before you have a fire, you keep an up-to-date record of each article exposed to possible loss. To help you do this, the Atlantic Companies are offering a free inventory booklet for household furnishings and personal property. It lists the items you are likely to own—such as carpets, chairs, lamps, appliances—and provides space for additional items and for the cost of each one.

Filling in this inventory record of your possessions now will serve two purposes. First, it will give you an accurate list from which to file a claim. Second, it will help you determine if you are adequately insured (at the time of fire loss, most people do not have enough fire insurance!)

To make certain you collect all you should when you have a fire, fill out Atlantic's household inventory booklet. For your free copy, clip this coupon and send it to the independent agent of your choice below.
