

Gaiety Reigns Over Week-End

L. C. GOAD
Among guests

'Pink' Picnic And Puppets AAUW Fare

A "pink" picnic, with puppets for entertainment, is scheduled by Birmingham Branch of American Association of University Women for its final luncheon of the season Wednesday, June 13, at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Members will sit down at pale pink geranium-centered tables, covered with pink cloths. A puppet presentation of "Peter and the Wolf" will be viewed.

This production was a highlight of the Detroit Book Fair last fall, and has been performed 25 times, nineteen of the performances given voluntarily for institutions and hospitals.

THE PLAY is an original adaptation of the Prokoviev musical story done by Mrs. Walter G. Patton, Mrs. Rodley Craighead and Mrs. Calvin Demission. Music from a symphonic recording was taped and is interspersed throughout the play. The tiny but spirited actors are given life by Mrs. Ralph Livingston, Mrs. E. M. Kuehl and Mrs. Demission. Mrs. Craighead will direct the play.

Constructing puppets and props kept members busy last summer. Mrs. A. S. Thornbury, Mrs. Robert Von Maur, Mrs. Donald B. Warth, Mrs. Richard Kuning and Mrs. Gordon McCormick are already making plans for a new production next fall.

With this program, Mrs. David H. Goodfellow ends two years' service as AAUW program chairman. She has appointed Mrs. N. J. Rakas chairman of the day at Oakland Hills.

It was bitter-sweet fun Saturday night at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, with hail and farewell the theme as friends of Gen. and Mrs. John W. Richardson of Bennington Drive rallied to bid them a festive goody preceding their departure for Wilmington, Del., their permanent address now. The honorees (left), who have lived in Birmingham for the past 17 years, greeted friends at the entrance to the ballroom where later everyone dined and danced. Among the group who helped plan the subscription affair were Mrs. Ernst Kern, Mr. Kern (in white jacket) and Bill Reid. Mrs. Reid was among the first to autograph the huge blow-ups of the honor guests which were spotlighted in the foyer.

MRS. JACK GORDON
Pretty in print

Welcome Mat Out For Newcomers At Forest Lake

Now members at Forest Lake Country Club are always welcomed to the fold with great warmth, enthusiasm and festivity. So it shall be on the night of June ninth when members gather for their spring formal dinner dance.

Club President Donald P. Green and his lovely wife will start the evening with a cocktail party for fifty in their Franklin Village home. The honored guests will include twenty new members; the Board of Directors and their wives, and past presidents and their wives. Honored guests will include twenty new members; the Board of Directors and their wives, and past presidents and their wives. Honored guests will include twenty new members; the Board of Directors and their wives, and past presidents and their wives.

Valley Woods Branch, WNFCA, is civic improvement-conscious these days, and with that in mind recently presented a Moraine locust to Wylie Groves High School.

Young Adults

Birmingham Young Adult Club met Friday at the YMCA preceding a trip out to the Hawaiian Gardens in Holly for dinner.

Back in her Detroit high school days, when attractive Mrs. Glen R. Miller of Lake Park was known as songstress Helen Jane Farley, she took the town by storm with torchy renditions of current hit parade classics. That she can still do it was proved Saturday night at the party for the Richardsons. Helen sang a number in their honor composed by another party guest, Mrs. Louis Colombo. It brought the house down.

Garden Round-Up Sets Dizzy Pace

At a recent meeting of the Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association at the Birmingham Community House, Birmingham Branch won an Orchard Award in the "class for large organizations." It also earned top awards in horticulture, conservation and the "Christmas Show," and won second place in the photography class.

Mrs. F. G. Garrison was elected president of the Michigan Division and Mrs. Marvin Katke was elected second vice president. Both women are members of the Birmingham Branch.

In the meantime, new officers in the local branch include Mrs. George S. Dixon, president; Mrs. C. V. DiPietro, vice president; Mrs. Marvin Katke, second vice president; Mrs. Norman Berry, recording secretary; Mrs. John P. Rossier Jr., corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. H. Goldsmith, treasurer. Committee chairmen include Mrs. Fred Henry Jr., Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr, Mrs. Fred M. Harley, Mrs. Ralph H. Scheel, Mrs. Charles Mason, Mrs. Chester Wisniewski, Mrs. H. S. McFarland, Mrs. E. E. Schaffner, Mrs. James A. Hunter, Mrs. J. Reed Alexander, Mrs. Harry O. Hoyt and Mrs. Howard B. Green.

Still others include Mrs. S. J. Skaisits, Mrs. R. A. Tazgart, Mrs. Thomas Poote, Mrs. Charles H. Davison, Mrs. Herbert A. Carr, Mrs. Nelson A. Miles, Mrs. Harvey B. Bushnell and Mrs. P. Russell Olin.

On June 11, Mrs. Hans Schjolin will open her gardens on Stonybrook Lane to members of the group. The natural wooded setting and profusion of wild flowers has won national awards for the hostess.

THE WILLIAMSBURG WNFCA of Bloomfield Hills took advantage of Mrs. Schjolin's hospitality and gardens, Monday, going over at noon for a picnic lunch followed by a tour. Assistant hostesses for the day were Mrs. L. O. Brown, Mrs. Frederick Roehle and Mrs. C. D. Thomas.

Another tour took place Monday when members of Bloomfield Hills WNFCA took off by bus for the University of Michigan Botanical Gardens. The women met at Bloomfield Hills Country Club before noon, boarded the bus, held their business session en route and on arrival had a picnic lunch on the beautiful grounds of Mrs. Hague Mathaei's home.

It took a while to get the tree planted, for it was purchased the week the rains came, but finally the sun broke through and the tree took root.

THE PAST TWO WEEKS have been busy ones for the 26 women of Bloomfield's Concord Green, brand new WNFCA branch sponsored by Cranbrook branch. New group met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Clark of Lamplighter Lane recently and elected the following officers: Mrs. Donald Maunders, president; Mrs. Allen Hennes, vice president; Mrs. Norman Johnson, recording secretary; Mrs. James Cook, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred Booth, treasurer; Mrs. William Lee, program chairman; Mrs. Richard Garrison is historian and Mrs. John Kaichen is in charge of publicity.

An executive board meeting held at the home of new president Mrs. Maunders has since found the officers involved in writing a constitution, which will be presented to the entire membership at a meeting to be held June 18 at 8:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Cook on Lamplighter Lane.

And speaking of Cranbrook Branch, sponsorship of a new group is not its only claim to fame for it, too, won merit awards at the annual meeting of the Michigan Division. A total of five awards added up to 16 points, which enabled Cranbrook to win the greatly coveted Orchard Award for a small group.

(See ROUND-UP, 6-C)

Suburban Scene

by MARY ELLEN MEAD
Society Editor

Add Glamor

Patrons of Detroit's 45th Annual Horse Show, scheduled to be held June 26 through July 1 at Bloomfield Hills Open Hunt Club, can anticipate tents-ful of added attractions this year, for contingent on activities in the ring will be a Hunt Fair as old-fashioned as blueberry pie.

Old-fashioned, that is, with modern overtones, for under the gala blue and white striped enclosures a number of well-known shops will be open for business—not at the same old stand, exactly, but with items displayed for which each is re-nowned.

Among the group will be Julie, Inc., Danish Pastry Shop, Irene Brown's Cashmere Sweaters, Saks Fifth Avenue, Village Bookshelf, Rare Books, Games Imported, Gwynn's, Detroit League for the Handicapped, The Dants, Miner's, PeonyPunchers, Yarncraft, Griswold Sport Shop, Sam Field's Art Studio, B-Bar-E Western Supply, Princeton Prep, LeChaire Portraiture and Young Clothes.

Along the Midway

And within the bounds of this rarified atmosphere young ladies in shocking pink aprons and hats will be selling young fry popcorn, cotton candy, lemonade, pony rides and tickets for carnival games.

As the crowds arrive for the five-day event, they may very well find their price of admission being taken by a Ph.D., an instructor, a Junior Leaguer from Birmingham, or a Sigma Gamma. Whoever the ticket-taker may be, it's a sure bet his or her time is being donated for the benefit of the MSUO Scholarship Fund.

MSUO faculty and staff personnel, their husbands and wives and students are all joining in this effort to raise money for educating deserving area young people. Also lending time and talent to the Hunt Fair project are community groups such as the Village Woman's Club of Birmingham, Tau Betaus, Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce and many others.

Searching Out Loot

One of the most diversified booths at the Fair will be the MSUO "Treasures 'n' Truffles" concession. Mrs. Arthur Underwood, chairman of this department, announces that the booth will feature everything from costume jewelry, genuine antiques, bric-a-brac and heirlooms to old china and glassware.

Assisting Mrs. Underwood are Mrs. E. S. Wellock, Mrs. John K. Bagby, Mrs. George J. Huebner Jr., Mrs. John W. Shenefield and Mrs. Edward H. Levenson, who say that anyone wishing to contribute her own white elephants to the cause, please call.

Co-Chairmen of the Hunt Fair Committee are Mrs. L. L. Gilbert and Mrs. A. C. Girard, both of Bloomfield Hills. Others from this area assisting are Mrs. Robert Vander Kloot, Mrs. Don E. Ahrens, Mrs. J. S. Mahoney, Mrs. John Denman, Mrs. Robert Dearth, Mrs. Eugene Foley, Mrs. S. D. Steiner, Mrs. Harry Swan and Mrs. Harry Winston, Jr.

Mt. Holyoke Grad Wins Exciting Job

Mt. Holyoke senior Jo Burr Fredericks has received an assignment to the International Atomic Energy Agency at the UN. On her volunteer job, she will interview UN delegates to learn their evaluation of Moscow, but was named recently by her parents, the W. Ogden Voets of Puritan Road.

She'll be completing her eight-week assignment at the UN just in time to hurry home for parties and preparations before her wedding on Sept. 1.

Jo is graduating from Mt. Holyoke College, through which she received the important assignment to the International Atomic Energy Agency at the UN. On her volunteer job, she will interview UN delegates to learn their evaluation of Moscow, but was named recently by her parents,

BIRMINGHAM-BLOOMFIELD

Reception at Club Follows Ceremony

By HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

The wedding of Jane Elizabeth Torrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Torrey of Lake Park Drive, and John Harold King took place Saturday noon at Holy Name Church. The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. J. Harold King of Mansfield, Ohio.

The bride wore a gown of bougainvillee tulle with three-quarter-length sleeves. Alenon lace embroidered with seed pearls accented the puffed sides of the controlled bell shape skirt. The full draped back ended in a chapel train.

Her veil of French illusion was held by a cluster of roses and lilies of the valley. She carried a prayer book with a bouquet of lilies and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Sharon Eaton, and bridesmaids Kathy Torrence, Kathy Mallinson, Linda Patton, Pat Hovey and Judy Lawrence wore sheath dresses in turquoise pean de soie with matching chiffon over skirts. Small pill boxes, also in turquoise, held puff veils.

Mrs. Torrence wore an ivory and beige lace sheath with matching accessories, and the groom's mother was gowned in a coral blue sheath, draped in chiffon panels. A luncheon and reception was held at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, after which the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in the Poconos Mountains. After the fifteenth of June they will be at home in Mansfield, Ohio.

MRS. CARL J. Spikes of Colony Hill Road entertained at a coffee last Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Felix DeMarco.

Among the neighbors invited were Mrs. Dale Carse, Mrs. Ross Kirwin, Mrs. Richard Cuddahy, Mrs. Otto Schubert, Mrs. Phillip Price, Mrs. John Mergel, Mrs. Donald Hacker, Mrs. Nicholas Quint and Mrs. Lyle Blossom.

The Lawrence Averills of Tottenham Road recently had as their guest, Suzanne Morgan, of Bethesda, Md., who will become the bride of the Averills' son, Lawrence Jr., on June 23. The ceremony will take place in Bethesda.

Several parties were given for the bride-elect including the Open House the Averills had to introduce Suzanne to their friends, and a tea and miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. L. N. Mays of Lakewood Drive and Mrs. John McLeod of Detroit, at the Mays home.

Mrs. Wayne Andraue of Half Moon Road returned this week from an Eastern trip which included a visit to Marblehead.