MRS. GRAHAM

Double Ring Nuptial Mass Unites Pair

Kay Madonna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Madonna, 1811-Belfort Road, Beverly Hills, became the bride of Ned Wilson Graham, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, formerly of Kalamazoo in a double ring nuptial mass Saturday at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church.

For her marriage the bride chose a full-length gown of silk organza with long sleeves, a brush train and seven neckline accented by Alencon lace. A crown of crystal and pearls held her ballerina-length veil and she carried a prayer book decorated with white miniature roses and stephanotis.

Martha Kasten of Franklin Hills and Sausilite, Calif., was maid of honor and Mrs. James Harris of Kalamazoo was bridesmaid. Their gowns were fashioned of white silk organza, the bodices encircled by raspberry cumberbunds and floating panels. They carried cascades of pink carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Madonna chose a sheath of ousu silk with matching shoes and white accessories. She carried a purse to which she pinned excharist lilacs.

Jay Madonna, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were James Harris and Jerry Hopper of Kalamazoo.

Following a garden reception at the home of the bride, the new Mrs. Graham donned a printed linen sheath with white accessories for her honeymoon trip to Seattle and California.

The bride attended Western Michigan University and the bridegroom is sales manager for Hills industries. The couple will make their home in Kalamazoo, Michigan.
