Women Elect Officers, See Slides at Group's Meeting

By Norma Whollhan
MI 6-2307

On Tuesday, the South Berkshires Women's Association held their annual meeting in the Martha Griffith room of the Birmingham Community House.

In addition to an interesting showing of colored slides from the Celanese Corp., Mrs. John Long of Bermuda Lane displayed unusual candles which are made to order to match table accessories. The nominating committee also presented their slate for new officers for the coming year, followed by a formal election.

IT WAS A GAY group that gathered at Mrs. Robert F. Gladfelter's home on Coryell Drive on May 28 for a bon voyage party for Mrs. Thomas Canham of the Birmingham Community House.

The girls enjoyed luncheon and presented Mrs. Canham with a purse as a going-away present. Attending were Wanda Nead, Anne Young, Rity Poirier, Gloria Lasco, Joan Asquith, Mildred Wright, Barbara Wood, Mildred Cline and Anne Risak.

THE LEO VIGIS recently entertained a family group for an outdoor barbecue and splash party in their backyard pool to honor a cousin, Mrs. Anna Laica, who is leaving soon on a European trip. For those not inclined to swim, the hostess provided badminton and other games while pictures were being taken of the festivities.

VALLEY WOODS Mrs. James McHugh of East-lady Drive will be hostess to the Valley Woods Branch WNFCA when they meet Monday for luncheon and a business session. Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Charles Deuel, Mrs. Charles Sawyer and Mrs. Kenneth Walling.

At the installation of new officers, out-going president Mrs. Donald Young will be succeeded by Mr. Gerald Joynt, with Mrs. John Long as first vice-president; Mrs. James Severy, second vice-president; Mrs. Don Van Every, treasurer; Mrs. Lewis Dempsey, recording secretary and Mrs. Olaf Kroneman as corresponding secretary.

THE ROBERT Andersons of Vallen Court hadn't planned on a baseball or football game when they invited the Steve Gromeka and their three youngsters to a picnic dinner on Decoration Day. With the addition of the three Anderson children (and the fathers) everyone joined in the games and had enough energy later for a song fest.

BEVERLY HILLS Clean-up day at the Beverly Hills Athletic Club was Saturday when members came to ready the pool for the scheduled opening on June 16. The signal that everything is shipshape and open will be the flying of the flag from the club grounds—then the eager bathers can don their suits for that first plunge of the season.

This year a new feature will be the participation of club teams in a swimming league, composed of teams from nearby pools who will give members the opportunity of competing in tournaments.

WHEN MR. and Mrs. Howard Rieman of Loehrbie returned this spring from a visit with daughter Nancy, they came home loaded down with all their daughter's winter apparel and promised her that, if she could make the 44-pound weight limit, she could fly home for summer vacation.

It may have been a little difficult, but Nancy made it and arrived home this week from
