

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

Strawberries, Band To Star in Festival

By NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Striking up the proper note to launch summertime on June 17 will be a Strawberry Festival and band concert on the village green, starting at 4:30 p.m.

The annual event, a revival of the "good bye days," is sponsored by the Franklin Community Association and features the Franklin Band, under the direction of Dr. Conrad Lam.

ON MONDAY, the Franklin branch WNFPA will hold a combination picnic and garden tour as its final meeting of the season.

The post-lunch luncheon, with every member toting her carefully considered calories in colorfully contrived containers, will start at noon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Rowse of Normandy. From thence, ticket bearing members will visit the gardens of Mrs. Harry Barr, Mrs. Roy M. Nelson, Mrs. Robert Swift, Mrs. P. D. Wright and Mrs. R. W. Cook.

THE GROUP has been reveling in the reflected glory of blue ribbon winners at the recent spring flower show, held by Wright Kays in Detroit. Of four entries by the Franklin branch, the arrangements by Mrs. Paul Ziegelbauer and Mrs. N. A. Thurston, took top honors. Not far behind were those of Mrs. Robert Swift and Mrs. D. O'Brien.

MRS. ROBERT SWIFT was re-elected to serve as president another year. Other officers are Mrs. J. P. Taylor, first vice-president; Mrs. O'Brien, second vice-president; Mrs. Donald Hogue, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Bergeron, corresponding secretary and Mrs. R. W. Cook, treasurer.

A picnic for the 10 boys from Pontiac State hospital, for whom the WNFPA horticultural committee have given tender, loving attention this year, was held Wednesday at the home of co-chairman Mrs. Donald Tracy on Oakleaf Lane.

Mrs. Robert DeLonge, chairman—with Mrs. Harold Shattuck, Mrs. Max Bader, Mrs. Thomas Deegan and Mrs. Swift—provided king-size treats for the teenage youths.

A TEA to introduce four newcomers was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Pizer on Nottingham. A resident of only two years herself, Mrs. Pizer entertained about 27 guests who came to meet Mrs. Norman Miller of Woodlore, Mrs. Raymond Gudowski of Franklin Park Drive, Mrs. Joseph Mankovitz and Mrs. Julian Abramson of Nottingham.

THE SERVICE SQUAD of Franklin School, comprised of girls who have helped monitor halls and boys who have served on the safety patrol, all sixth graders, will board the boat to Bob-Lo Island Monday for a high-spirited holiday as a reward for their loyal efforts this year.

Roger Marce brings honor to the community as a cum laude graduate of Alma. The incoming received his BA degree Saturday with a major in history and will be entering the University of Michigan law school Monday.

He is the son of Mrs. Irma Davis, township editor of The Birmingham Eccentric. Rog was also tapped by an honorary fraternity.

AS THEY SAY in Welsh, "Gymnagannu"—or let's sing it up! A traditional Welsh hymn sing will be conducted at the Franklin Community Church this Sunday at 4 p.m., under the guidance of Ellen Addington and the support of the chancel and crusader choirs.

Translated, gymnagannu means the participants are sorted out according to voice ranges and everybody sings in part-harmony. What a chance for the alto to chirp in the soprano section!

MRS. CARL MORSE was elected president of the Women's Society for Christian Service recently, succeeding Mrs. John Harris who served for two years. Other officers elected were Mrs. D. B. Hogue, first vice president in-charge of programs; Mrs. Robert J. Hampson, second vice-president in charge of finance; Mrs. J. H. Holmes, secretary and Mrs. Donald H. Webster, treasurer.

Because the membership of the five circles rotate every two years, new groupings will hold "get acquainted" meetings in June.

A MEETING of the newly formed Rachel circle—the church's sixth—was called for today by chairman Mrs. Margaret Woodburn. Mrs. John Hill of Rosset Road was hostess.

Mrs. Webb E. Lee, 2617 Hersheyvale, will have a coffee Monday at 10 a.m. for Ruth circle members.

WALNUT LAKE

There's excitement and pride at the Graham Overgard home on Walnut Lake Road. Sandra received her masters degree from Wayne State and on the same day finished her internship at Ford Hospital in medical technology. She has joined a research team at Ford's.

WALNUT LAKE

John received his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Michigan State and Karen is home for the summer from Washington D. C. where she attends Gaudet College. She brought with her Elaine Boxer who will visit the family for 10 days.

BRAES

Mrs. Kenneth Bielby of West-moor Road entertained at cocktails and dinner recently. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gribbon of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Hurd Woodbridge of Southfield and Margaret McNamara. After dinner the guests played cards.

During the recent neighborhood encampment "WOW", the younger troops visited "learning stations" during the day, with the older girls in charge.

Station one gave demonstrations for building fires, use of the knife, axe and saw; station two instructed in knots and leashing; station 3, tent erection and station four taught first aid.

After lunch they practiced lemon sticks, folk dancing, compass instruction and compass hikes. Troop 29 demonstrated a trial tornado "alert." Mrs. Mitchell Middleton, Mrs. James Roberts and Mrs. Julian O'Brien received badges for the many assistants they have given the scouts.

BRAES

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Johns of Westmoor Drive received news recently that their grandson Craig Wilton had been awarded the "God and Country" award by the Boy Scouts. Craig had worked for his award for 2 1/2 years.

WALNUT LAKE

The Michigan Division WNFPA presented the award of merit to the Walnut Lake branch for outstanding achievement in the field of flower shows. The award was earned for the September, 1961 show, held at Mable's Herb and Garden Center.

The group also received a second place award for outstanding achievement in the field of civil improvement, earned for the landscaping done by the members around the Walnut Lake School.
