

Local Version of '500' Classic

Stay-at-home racing fans not attending the Indianapolis 500 mile event but going to Oakland Hills Country Club Memorial Day Eve instead, were treated to a local version of the '500' classic by club members who volunteered to take part in the fun floor show. Participating (from left) were Mrs. Clarence Hatch, Mrs. John B. Gray, Mrs. Garvin Bawden Jr. and Mrs. John Picco.

THE PATIO and garden of the Tullamore Drive home of the Charles Whitbread was the scene of the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huber of St. Clair, parents of Mrs. Whitbread, on Saturday afternoon.

Cocktails and a buffet supper was served. The 60 guests traveled from St. Clair, Grosse Pointe, Detroit and Birmingham for the occasion. Party decorations were carried out in gold and white, throughout the house and patio.

THE RICHARD HODGES of Winchcombe Road entertained at a farewell dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kabel of Winchcombe last Tuesday evening. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mills and Mr. and Mrs. William Currie of Winchcombe, and Mr. and Mrs. James Dutton of Ledbury.

The Jerry Kabels and their children, Terry, Marjo and Jeffrey, left for Washington, D. C., on Memorial Day. Kabel will be a writer for Sen. Philip Hart in Washington.

THE JOSEPH WRIGHTS of Whittier Drive hosted a get acquainted picnic on Memorial Day for a group of their new neighbors—the Robert Burches, the Robert Niemanns, the James Adams, the Harry Bixbys and the William Joyces. Others were Mrs. Jerry Ferrar, Mrs. Ray Fisler, the David McClarys and the Charles Pipers of Birmingham. The Joseph Wrights are newcomers themselves, moving from Rockford, Ill. six months ago.

They have four children—Tim, 11, Claudia, 10, Todd, 8—attending Eastover School and Kelly, 1. Wright is sales engineer with W. F. & John Barnes. Golf and gardening are among their interests.

MOVING INTO their new home on Whittier from Rolling Hills, Calif. are the William Joyces. They have a son, Leonard, 7, a pupil at Eastover School and a daughter, Jennifer, 4. Joyce is in purchasing at Vickers, Inc. Their interests include, golf, swimming and bridge.

The Clifford Rolands of Ramshurst Drive are looking forward to Sunday when their houseguests will be arriving for a week's visit. The guests are Mrs. Roland's relatives, the James
