Little League Sees Double No-Hitter, 2 Grand Slams

A double no-hitter highlighted Little League baseball in Birmingham last week.

Gar Thomas (Indians) and Ray Collins (Jets) pitched a double no-hit game in the American Major League for the regulation six innings. A rally in the eighth inning finally won the game, 3-1, for Thomas.

In the Federal (North Division) Minor League, a bases loaded home run by Ron Smith of the Owls wasn't quite enough as his team lost to the Falcons, 6-5. Reb Bailey also homered for the Owls.

JAY SMITH stroked a two-run bleacher blast for the Jays which proved to be the winning margin, 3-1, over the Oaks.

The White Sox wished it had rained Memorial Day after suffering a 16-2 loss at the hands of the Athletics. Bing Gordon led the Athletic hitting attack with a grand slam home run.

to off-balance this by making fewer mistakes in the field."

THE LAST SIX games were won by an average score of 4-1, and nearly all were marked by a tight pitching performance. Schmidt, who recently accepted a scholarship to Western Michigan University, was half of one of the strongest pitching duos in the EML. Tom Walters was the other hurler.

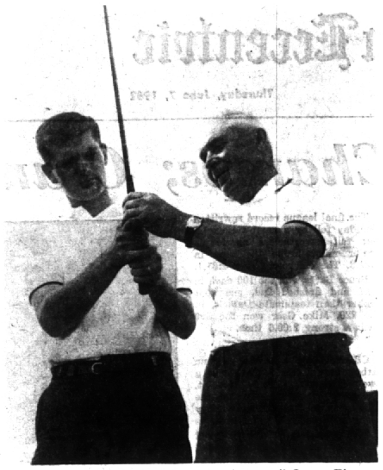
"Tom tripped over first base running out a hit a couple of weeks ago and fractured his hand," sighed Tassio. "He did an excellent job for us before he injured himself.

BOTH PITCHERS will graduate in June, along with other consistent performers such as first baseman Chandler Simonds, "the likes of which won't be seen around Sealholm for a long time to come," praised his coach; and Stu Walters, ball-hawking left fielder.

Tassio expressed regret over the graduation of his team'se nucleus, but very little concern.

"With this kind of desire," he said, "we will win our share."

Michigan leads all the states in per capita support of higher education, and Michigan's 74 institutions of higher learning, both public and private, include some of the foremost in their fields.



AL (BUDDY) BADGER, 3940 Cottontail Lane, Bloomfield Hills, shown getting advice from Coach John Brotzmann (right), capped his golf career at Michigan State with a fine senior season.

Al Badger Completes MSU Golfing Career

Al Badger, son of Bloomfield Hills' residents Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Badger, finished his last year of golf competition at Michigan State University with the teams best average, 75.2.

The 21-year-old veteran of college and statewide competition fired 79-76-75-72—302 to tie for 11th in the recent Big Ten meet, the same spot he finished last year.

BESIDES LEADING the Spartans in the average department, Badger twice copped medalist honors in dual meets.

He led State's win over Illinois with 79-77—156 in a near snow storm at Champaign and fired 71-75—146 to pace State over Northwestern.

A 6-1, 170-pounder, Badger's booming tee shots and fine iron play have made his record at State a good one. He also won letters as a sophomore and junior.

Badger, who majors in business administration is married and is the father of two children.

Maples' Golfers Finish at 4-4

A second place finish in the Eastern Michigan League championship meet Friday at Port Huron brought a close to Seaholm High's golf season, squaring their overall record at 4-4.

The Maples' season thus consisted of a fourth in the Regionals, second in the Pontiac Press invitational tournament, and second in dual matches in the EML.

Port Huron had a 396 stroke total in Friday's meet, followed by Seaholm at 416 and Mt. Clemens at 429. Jim Cheney's 80 was low for the Maples.

COACH CARL Lemle, who will see two seniors graduate from his squad in June, expressed his gratitude to all neighboring country clubs who offered their facilities free of charge to the EML's golf teams.

The Maples practiced at Birmingham Country Club, and other Golf Clubs participating were Knollwood, Orchard Lake, Pine Lake, Franklin Hills and Tam O'Shanter.

American Babe Ruth League Opens Season

In the second game the Orioles trimmed the Indians by the score of 4-2.

In the final game the Senators edged the Tigers 2-1 with Charlie Horner getting the win and Bill Canham the loss.

IN FRIDAY'S game the Indians bombed the Yanks by the score of 13-2.

In Saturday's first game the Tigers buried the Orioles by the overwhelming score of 16-0 with Brant Conley pitching a 1 hitter and striking out 18 of the 27 batters who faced him in the 7 inning game.
