MRS. PAUL A. GERHARDT

Trip to Smokies Follows Ceremony

At a ceremony solemnized June 9 in the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, Jean Carol Stinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stinson of Benaville Ave., Birmingham, became the bride of Paul Alan Gerhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Gerhardt of Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills.

The Rev. Samuel F. Stout officiated at the 3 o'clock service, which was followed by a reception at the church.

The bride wore for her wedding a gown of silk organza over taffeta featuring an oval neckline softly scalloped with pearls and sequins highlighted the alienor lace front panel of the skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of Amazon lilies, roses, ivy and stephanotis.

SUE E. STINSON was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a gown of sunshine yellow silk organza fashioned with a bell-shaped skirt, round neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Her Dior hue of yellow organza was trimmed by a veil of silk illusion. She carried cresset ivy and white Marguerite daisies. Bridesmaids Mrs. David K. Carlisle and Karen Apsey, both of Birmingham, were dressed identically.

Stewart T. Evans of Dallas, Tex., was best man, and seating the guests were Mr. Carlisle, Steven Kitchens of Big Rapids, Mich.; Stanley Madison of Birmingham and Richard Stinson of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Stinson chose an ice blue silk linen sheath for her daughter's wedding, the bodice distinguished by appliqued Alencon lace. Her corsage was of white cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Gerhardt was dressed in a rose lace sheath, with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Following a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, the newlyweds will be at home after June 18 in Spartan Village, East Lansing.

Grants Awarded To Ten Teachers

Ten winners of AAUW grants from the Birmingham and Bloomfield school systems were announced at a luncheon at Oakland Hills Country Club yesterday by Mrs. Robert F. Rohr, fellowships chairman of AAUW.

The winners and the colleges where they will study this summer are Rosemary Herman, University of Detroit; Mary Colleen Kable, Michigan State University; Mrs. Edwin Sharland, Syracuse University; Abigail Balgoveen, Middlebury College; Mrs. Richard Thomas, University of Michigan; Marilyn Arner, University of Michigan; Mrs. John Boaz, University of Michigan; Patricia Magaw, Wayne State University; Mrs. Daniel Maddoloni, Wayne State University; Emily Fowler, Michigan State University. All the teachers are working toward their master's degree, except Miss Herman who is studying for her doctorate.

DANIEL NESBITT, Deputy Superintendent in charge of instruction in Birmingham, commented, "The grants provided by the American Association of University Women dovetailed nicely with the Professional Growth Program adopted by the Board of Education this past year. Under the Professional Growth Program the board will reimburse each teacher for tuition up to $10 per semester hour for courses approved by the Superintendent of Schools. Teachers are encouraged to carry course work that will contribute substantially to their teaching assignments. The joint effort of the Board of Education and the American Association of University Women to encourage teachers to grow professionally will most certainly improve the quality of education in the Birmingham school district."

Mrs. Rohr, in announcing the grants for summer study said, "It is a great source of satisfaction to all of the members of Birmingham AAUW to be able to help a few of the teachers to take advanced study. We feel that by helping our teachers we are helping our children. The profits from our Book Sale are used for these grants to our teachers. Everyone who contributes books can feel she has a share in this."

Anyone wishing to contribute to the book sale may have books picked up by calling Mrs. Kenneth Keeler.

Open Thursday and Friday 'til 9 P.M.
