Newcomers Will Recess Until Fall

The Newcomer Club of Birmingham Community House will have a luncheon meeting Thursday, June 21, and then recess until September. Robert Thom, internationally known artist and Community House board member, will be the speaker.

Another feature of the June luncheon will be the annual Arts and Crafts Show. Newcomer members will exhibit paintings, ceramics, sculpture and other special crafts.

Also, it's election time again, and members will vote for the new officers who will assume their duties in the fall. Mrs. Richard Jessel, who is currently the vice-president, will become the new president, succeeding Mrs. Frederick Betz.

Other groups within the club have new leaders. Mrs. William Easton is chairman of the Little Theater Group. The Book Review Group has selected Mrs. Alfred Kruchten as their chairman, with Mrs. James Robertson, vice-chairman; Mrs. Harry Broske, secretary; and Mrs. Lloyd Schafer, treasurer.

Golf is the only Newcomer activity which will continue through the summer, with members playing every Friday at North Hills Country Club.

MRS. MORGAN R. DAVIS

Barbara E. Klemm Weds M. R. Davis

Wearing a gown of white silk organza, Barbara Elise Klemm walked up the aisle of Redeemer Lutheran Church June 9 to become the bride of Morgan Richard Davis, son of Mrs. Ray Davis of Huntington Woods and the late Mr. Davis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Klemm of Bristol Lane, Birmingham.

Bridal robes were distinguished by Alencon lace which outlined the picture neckline, trimmed the yoke and short sleeves and was used again on the full, circular chapel train. The bouffant illusion veil was held in place by a double crown of the same lace trimmed with tiny pearls, and the bridal bouquet was fashioned of stephanotis, ivy and white cymbidium orchids.

MRS. ROBERT BIEDRICKS of Cincinnati was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. John Sutton of Birmingham, sister of the bridegroom, and Patricia Kionke of Baltimore, a cousin of the bride. They were dressed identically in Open blue sheath of silk organza fashioned with an overskirt. They wore matching headpieces with circular veils and carried nosegays of sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

William Davis of St. Louis, Mo., was best man, and ushers were John Sutton of Birmingham; Richard Galloway of Madison Heights; George Pipper of Akron, Ohio; and Robert Rivest of Clawson.

Mrs. Klemm wore a pink lace sheath with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Davis chose a shocking pink chiffon gown.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton H. Mowald, of 3975 Oakland Drive, Birmingham, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Alexandra Lynn, to E. Thompson Bagley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bagley of Palatine, Ill. The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of Lake Forest College and is now an English master at Howe Military School. The bride-elect is studying interior decorating in Chicago. Date of the wedding will be announced later.
