

New President To Entertain At Luncheon

Mrs. Miles H. Knowles, recently elected president of The School of Government, will entertain the School's new list of officers and appointed committee chairmen at luncheon in her home on Broadway Blvd., Birmingham, this Friday.

Among the guests will be the group's immediate past president, Mrs. Clyde M. McCallie, of Dearborn and Mrs. Wilbur M. Bowker of Grosse Pointe. Mr. Bowker is the club's educational director and Mrs. McCallie is in charge of public relations. It will be held in the home, with refreshments in the garden of her home.

MRS. KNOWLES, an attorney, is the wife of a prominent Detroit attorney. She is interested in art and includes among her hobbies a collection of water colors, pencils, and oil paintings.

Other hobbies are gardening and the study of music. The School of Government is an organization of at least 250 women. Its object is the study of the science of government in a non-partisan manner. Monthly meetings are held the last Wednesday of each month in the Veterans' Memorial Building, Detroit.

Garden at Its Loveliest for Tour

Detroit Garden Center Pilgrimage in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area will take place Saturday and Sunday, with seven local gardens on display. Among them will be Mrs. Arthur Hyde's at 312 Waddington Road, Center.

Assisting Mrs. Hyde (left) as a hostess will be Mrs. Henry Milka. On hand Saturday afternoon to answer questions will be Ray Henstock, director of the Detroit Garden Center.
