

Keepers of Commencement Tradition

A traditional as graduation itself is the Candlelight Ball honoring seniors at the Convocation of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Hills. Among those attending the event's dinner dance given June 7 at Oakland Hills Country Club were (top to bottom) Peggy O'Connor and Bill Petersmark, Jacqueline Gatz with Terry O'Rourke, and Josephine De Lorenzo with Pablo Escudon.

Trip North Follows Reception at Club

At a 7:30 o'clock ceremony June 9 in the First Methodist Church of Birmingham, Jacqueline Claire Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Willett Pugh of Pleasant Ave., Birmingham, became the bride of Colin Miller Stewart Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin M. Stewart of Lakeview Road, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride walked up the aisle on the arm of her father wearing a gown of sleeveless white silk organza appliqued in Chantilly lace. The neckline was accented by embroidered seed pearls, the same pearls and lace trimming her white satin pill box, to which her chapel veil was fastened. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered by white orchids.

SALLY MULLAN of York Pa., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Debbi Hurling and Carol Evans, both of Birmingham. They all wore maize sheaths of nylon sheer over taffeta with matching esseralls and shoes. On their heads they wore Dior boxes of maize organza and their flowers were yellow and white daisies.

Warren Risk of Birmingham was best man, and seating the guests were Richard Boyd, Birmingham, Edgar W. Pugh Jr., also of Birmingham, James Fairman, of South Euclid, Ohio, and Roger B. Stewart of Bloomfield Hills.

At the reception at Birmingham Country Club, Mrs. Pugh greeted her guests wearing a mint green chiffon sheath with a bodice of Chantilly lace. The crown of her hairpiece was contrived of yellow and white flowers. Mrs. Stewart wore an antique gold silk linen sheath with a Venetian lace bodice, and her hat was of white organza roses. Both mothers carried white orchids to their parson.

MRS. STEWART JR. Following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Royal Oak.

The Birmingham Eccentric

Thursday, June 7, 1962

An exchange of good humor between people is a heaven for the cares of the day. It may be a good bit of humor read or heard or something one may "make up on the spot." But, however it is brought forth, the telling of it should add lightness to the moment . . . and aren't hours and days made up of moments? A good, hearty laugh not only shakes the ribs . . . it helps to shake cares, worries.

Hawaiian-West Coast Trip Fascinates Local Couple

By NORMA WHOLHAN MI 6-2307

Still thrilled, the Warren T. Whiteheads of Bedford Road returned last week from a fabulous vacation. They left Detroit by jet for Hawaii where they spent two weeks island-hopping, seeing the Hawaiian dancing and numerous shows. They were enthralled by the abundance of flowers everywhere.

Arriving in Seattle, the Whiteheads visited the World's Fair and then rented a car to drive over 1700 miles on a motor trip through Oregon, San Francisco and the Redwood forests of California. In Los Angeles, they stopped at Disney Land and Knott's Berry Farm before heading back home.

MARY DOROUGH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorough of Beauconsfield and a member of the first graduating class of Groves High School, entertained 30 classmates at a tea June 2.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Moons of Bellevue Trail have just returned from a seven-week tour of Europe. They sailed on the Queen Mary and returned on the Neen Amsterdam, visiting England, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, Italy and France while there. Two of the highlights of the trip were an audience with Pope John and dining on Mother's Day at the Allied Officer's Club with Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert Lander. Mrs. Lander is the former Betty Beyster of Bloomfield Hills.

NEIGHBORS ON Eastlady Drive, with their families and friends, got together for a basket dinner, June 3 at Camp Dearborn. The get-acquainted party was a great success with everyone joining in for baseball, badminton, trying the paddle boats and swimming.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Balgenorth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hewitt and Mr. and Mrs. James Severy. Also included were the William Deneens, the Olaf Kronenans, the Richard Pages and the Kenneth Kittles.

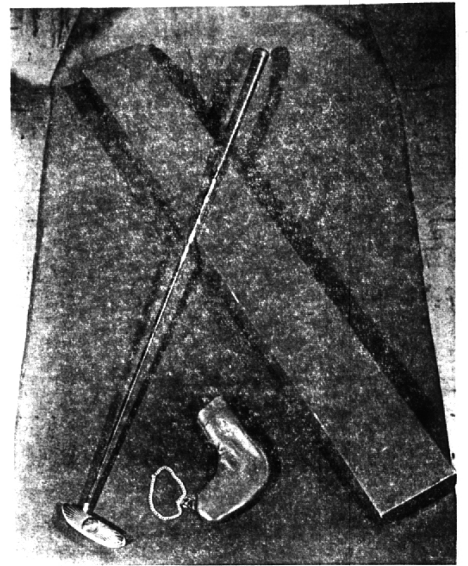

ON MAY 31, Gayle Staiger of Madeline had 18 guests for a backyard picnic to celebrate the end of the Marian High School year. Her brother, John, Jr. had Billie Zeiss as his guest and Linda Staiger was hostess to Maggie Zeiss. Hot dogs, lemonade, potato chips and all the favorite outdoor foods were on the menu.

Others attending were Denise Brown, Connie Wino, Barbara Murzynski, Colleen Taylor, Sharon Richards, Ellen Conradson, Delphine Barsen, Elizabeth Roach, Carolyn Moomen and Alice Biers. Also enjoying the fun were Barbara Harson, Mary Lou Ciavarella, Barbara Airm, Martha Dunley, Jeanne Price, Kathy Kalls, Genevieve Zepeda and Kathy Shields.

American hostesses are pleased when their guests bring or send them flowers at party time. French, Belgian, Italian, Spanish and Portuguese expect it.
