

SUSAN TABLOR

Fall Wedding Date Is Set by Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Cline Tablor of Beverly Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Susan to Thomas Walter Wahman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Wahman of St. Paul, Minn. The wedding is planned for Sept. 8 at Christ Church Cranbrook.

After completing her studies in English and Dramatics at Skidmore College and New York University, Susan, a graduate of Seaholm High School, has been doing acting and production work off Broadway in New York.

Currently she is with the Rockefeller Center Afro Carnival in Miami, starting a country

FRANKLIN VILLAGE Strawberry Social On Village Calendar

By NITA HARD MA 6-3221

Strings on fingers those days will help residents remember that the annual Strawberry Social on the village green is this Sunday afternoon. If you like your ice cream fairly firm, the Franklin Community Association committees making the arrangements urge your prompt arrival at 3 p.m.

Practicing Over Until Next Fall Cottons, Bermudas Keynote Luncheon

Nellie Pokorny presented her Birmingham and Doarborn pupils in a piano recital in her home June 2. Among the group were Craig Jones, Greg DeMascio, Dawn and Elizabeth Forslow and their brother, Charles; Greg Conroy, Taron Rote, Cindy Warkler, Laura Fretter and Mike Hillier. Others included Lauriole Ferguson, Nancy Hassell, Ricky Watts, Jan Touran, David Lurie, Richard Jacobs, Nan and Ruth Styles, Sharon Stobbins, Anne, Bobby and Pat Tamsey, Rosanne Haeefe, Jimmy and Freddy Ehling, Betty Schwab and Margaret Vantsenbruggen.

Cottons and bermudas will be the dress of the day for Christ Child Society's luncheon and meeting at Red Oaks, the home of Mrs. John Annas, next Wednesday. Ginny has been a gracious hostess for the past ten years. This year Mrs. Harold Mountain Jr. and Mrs. Lorraine Marchetti will co-chairmen the day.

Always well attended in spite of the fact that there can be only three or four sunny days school, and Mrs. Paul Bergmoyer, her co-chairman, the new school, set on two beautifully landscaped acres, will be ready in September for fifteen students.

Committee members working toward this goal are Mrs. Walter Simons, Mrs. Frank Lynch, Mrs. Log Keating, Mrs. Bernard Cary, Mrs. John Schaefer, Mrs. Lester Hyspar, Mrs. Edmund Nolan, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. William Gilmore and Mrs. J. T. Cruise.

MEMBERS MIGHT have the feeling of "nature in the market place" this year, as groups of Red Oaks will be used for a fund raising pre-sale display of summer items made by the group. Perhaps most exciting will be

Mrs. Hugh Ferguson's Party Time, with decorated picnic baskets, table cloths and even fancy door mats. (There is nothing so gay as a sprig of violets to greet the fastidious foot-wiper!)

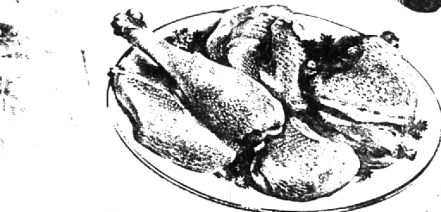

The Maison les Chapeaux, with Mrs. Elmore Leonard on hand to hold a mirror, will have roof-late Italian straws and those sweet little flowered children's hats.

Richard Pearce, promise to show everything from Italian leather to jewelry to flower arrangements and summer bags. And just so it can be a completely relaxing day, The Partry, with chief chef Mrs. Robert Ivory, will be happy to supply cookies and cakes to take home for supper.

A Dallas psychologist insists that a hat is a sign of masculinity. A king wears a crown, he explains, a warrior a helmet, and a chief a headdress. Men who go bare-headed consistently betray a lack of leadership, or so says the Texan student.
