

Residents Plan Move To California Home

After five year's residence in Lathrup, the Lloyd Thiels and her mother, Mrs. Leta Eber, will pull up stakes in a few days and head for California to make their home. He is planning a semi-retirement.

The couple have been members of Pine Lake Country Club. He and son Dick have been long-time visitors to the Northwest Y.M.C.A. where they played squash twice-weekly and Mrs. Thiel has been a very active member of the Lathrup Woman's Club.

ALTHOUGH LOOKING forward to their big adventure, the Thiels will miss their daughter, Mrs. James Bernard of Royal Oak, and see grandsons Mathew and Steven.

New residents of their Sunset home will be the William Mistales. Mrs. Thiel has already introduced Mrs. Mistale to some of the neighbors, choosing a coffee to do so.

CRANBROOK VILLAGE
Newcomers to Fall River are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kelly who moved here recently from Oak Park. They have one son, Michael, 9, who will be in the fourth grade at Northbrook School. Father is a general foreman at Cobo Hall and is joined in his enjoyment of fishing by two ardent anglers, his wife and son.

LATHRUP
Bernuda vacationer Mrs. James T. Worton of Sunnybrook is all settled down again, thank you, after her recent 11-day holiday. She traveled by train to New York City, from there boarded the ship, the "Ocean Monarch." After the cruise she spent a week-end in Manhattan.

She was accompanied on the tour by her sister and a friend from Detroit. The three reported mild weather in Bernuda—temperature 68 degrees—but hot in New York where the thermometer soared to 99.

AMONG RECENT graduates was Klaus-Juergen Bleifuss, 18, son of Dr. and Mrs. Werner M. Bleifuss of San Quentin in Lathrup who was one of a senior class of 100 members from St. John's Military Academy near Deerfield, Wis.

His parents drove down last weekend for the commencement exercises. Klaus will be attending Wittenberg University near Springfield, Ohio, next fall.

SOUTHFIELD
Local Optimists installed new officers at Rotunda Inn on June 7 with Douglas A. Kuhna the new president. Other officers are vice presidents John E. Anger and Wayne McInnes and treasurer Mark W. Rehbine.

On the board of directors are Emanuel Christensen, Robert H. Schapler, Keith W. Wickland, Lloyd S. Digue, Leland C. McRoy and James H. Davis.

Because the annual event includes Optimists as guests, wives of the Southfield Optimists were most welcome to the dinner meeting.

CRANBROOK VILLAGE
The Lloyd Gablers could hardly wait for the arrival of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace F. Gabler Sr. The couple live in DeBary, Fla. and made their trip north an extended one with various stopovers enroute.

If the Florida guests remain long enough, Mrs. Gabler notes, the family plan to observe Mrs. Gabler Sr.'s birthday toward the end of June.

SOUTHFIELD
Ladies' Night for the Kiwanis Club of Southfield was observed recently. The menfolk promised their wives a really special event—dinner at the Club Impressario, Detroit—and viewing the William Foster's puppets—who have a way with the opera. Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson.

A charm school for girls, eight years and older, will meet Mondays from 1 to 2 p.m. at Lathrup School. Bridge lessons for teenagers are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10 a.m. and young people may also avail themselves of oil painting classes on Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to noon.

The Lathrup School library will be open, starting Tuesday for eight Tuesday mornings.

The city office is the place to register.

LATHRUP
Linda Kay Martin, daughter of the Alex Martins of Coral Gables, is scheduled to leave next week for Hanover, Germany, where she will spend the next two months with a German family. Linda May is one of seven Southfield High School juniors participating in the Youth for Understanding program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches, in which students are sent to live and study abroad.

Some 45 guests were among those present at a gala buffet dinner Saturday evening, honoring Gail Howard, a Southfield High School graduate this June. Among the guests was Gail's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. James Bernard of Canton, Ill. and their son Jim.

Gail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howard of Roseland. She will enter the University of Michigan this fall and has begun nursing as her career-to-be.

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Hard Work Helps Make Fair a Hit

By VELMA MCANE
MA 6-6330

The traditional "fair" at Walnut Lake School June 2 was successful due to the work of parents and interested people, under the direction of general chairman Donald Ditz.

Ted Jacques and George McIntyre handled door prizes. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Pittard made and sold dozens of doughnuts. The hot dog concession was handled by Mr. and Mrs. Ware and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ainsley. The country store was under the direction of Mrs. John Lichty and Elaine Calder. Dick Bergman handled the soft drink stand.

THE BOY SCOUT display came under Art Brooks while Mrs. Holman handled the class picture gallery. The bake sale was headed by Mrs. Betz James Richard and Tenney Brinkman. Other chairmen included Mrs. Martha Phoebus, Norma Borris, Mary Swantek, Mr. and Mrs. Lindamood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vachlavik and John Lichty. Games chairman was Charles Campbell.

WEST BLOOMFIELD

About 60 of Jeanne Klopp's friends were invited to a party party at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. Mogens Klopp, on Spring Street, following the prom. The patio was decorated with lanterns for the buffet and dancing.

BRAES

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ditz and their three children recently hosted their favorite visitors, Mrs. Ditz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dammiller, spent several days with the Ditz family before leaving for Saginaw.

The Jim Bernadins, of Eastmoor Drive, recently were visited by the parents of Mrs. Bernardin, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Andre, of Cincinnati. Mrs. Bernardin also invited her sister, Mrs. Charles Fisher, and her husband to come from Canada to join the family get-together.

WALNUT LAKE

The Walnut Lake Women's Club held the last meeting of the season at the home of new president Mrs. Julian Ofenstein on Patnam Road. Some 35 members attended the smorgasbord luncheon and fashion show of lathing suits of about 1900 vintage.

Chairman for the afternoon, Mrs. William Crosey, was assisted by Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Roy Eder and Mrs. Elmer Speicher.

THE ELMER WEEKS, of Lakeshire Drive recently honored their aunt and uncle, Catherine and Andrew Jokinen, of Greenbrier Road, with a family dinner commemorating their anniversary on Memorial Day.

In Europe these days more hands are shaken than kissed. Even French and Italian gentlemen have become champions of firm hand clasp. Under conditions where the kissing custom persists, only the hands of married ladies are eligible. Vienna is the exception.

Merrill-Palmer

Among local people who have agreed to serve as members of the Merrill-Palmer Corporation are Mrs. Warren Booth of Martell Drive, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. John Judd of 1322 N. Glenary Road, Birmingham; Mrs. Ben D. Mills, of 80 Vaughan Road, Bloomfield Hills, and B. Jane Theodoroff, 1108 W. Fourteen Mile Road, Birmingham. Mrs. R. James Williams, of 1023 Yarmouth, Birmingham, is chairman of the nominating committee.
