Double Celebration Held by Gardeners

The Westchester Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden celebrated its fifth anniversary as well as the winning of an Orchid Award with the annual smorgasbord dinner June 11 at the Lutheran Church of the Shepherd King.

Chairman of the dinner was Mrs. John Bryant. Her committee of the dinner was John Heald, Mrs. Vincent Kaptur and Mrs. Ludolph Thun.

Installation of officers and a program of fun followed the dinner. Those installed were Mrs. Boris Osajnik, president; Mrs. Vincent Kaptur, first vice-president; Mrs. Richard Kellogg, second vice-president; Mrs. Frank Starr, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Paul Meyer, recording secretary and Mrs. Stephen Varga, treasurer.

Each new officer was presented with a cut Homeroicallis, the branch flower, as a symbol of the work that lay ahead of them. Each outgoing officer and board member was presented with an attractively potted Homeroicallis plant as an expression of thanks for a job well done. Mrs. Albert Pfeifer, retiring first vice president, presented the outgoing president, Mrs. Melvin W. Goodell, with a gift of appreciation from the group.

THE PROGRAM of fun was an original play written by members Mrs. Vernon Fitch and Mrs. Albert Pfeifer. Entitled "Tremendously Wonderful," the one-act farce starred the entire retiring board and officers.

During the playlet, each retiring board member and officer modeled an original hat designed by the wearer to be representative of her job on the board.

Farwell messages were given to three members of the board.

MRS. BRYANT

Mrs. Don Benke, Mrs. Donald King and Mrs. Robert Erwin. The playlet also mentioned the first place awards the branch received in Civic Improvement, International Cooperation and Photography; the second place award in Horticulture; and the honorable mention for year book and program. These individual state awards combined to earn for the 56-member-branch the Orchid Award, the only one awarded to a branch of its size in the State of Michigan this season.

Mrs. G. Donald Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, mother of Mrs. Robert Williamson, was guest visitor.

Garden Club

Members of the Little Garden Club met June 18 in the home of Mrs. H. C. Botsford on Lincoln Drive, Birmingham. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. David Underdown and Mrs. H. J. Gibson, Jr.

Kirk-in-Hills Is Scene of Nuptial Rites

Susan Irene Rolli and Jamie MacFarlane Martin Jr. were united in marriage Saturday, June 9, at a ceremony solemnized at the Kirk-in-the-Hills. Dr. Harold C. DeWirdt performed the service before immediate members of both families.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Rolli of Toledo, Ohio, and the Jamie MacFarlane Martins of Birmingham are parents of the newlyweds.

The bride wore an informal white imported batiste dress with insets of Val lace. A wreath of stephanotis held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

MRS. ALAN NOBLE of Toledo was her sister's only attendant, wearing for the occasion a pearl gray embroidered linen sheath with yellow accessories.

William M. Bertling of Bloomfield Hills was best man, and seating the guests were Christopher Finckler of Perryburg, Ohio, and Thomas Derlath of Pleasant Ridge.

Mrs. Rolli chose a sheer blue cotton and net tulle sheath and white orchids for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Martin wore a royal blue two-piece silk linen costume with champagne cynidium orchids. Mrs. Chester Martin, grandmother of the bridegroom, of Ann Arbor, wore a mauve print and her flowers were green orchids.

Immediately following a reception at Devon Gibbs, the couple left for Fairfield, Iowa, to resume their studies at Parsons College.

Area Women Participate In Workshop

Mrs. Don W. Hunter of Franklin, noted for her organizational savoir faire, was responsible for the informative agenda for The Workshop held at the Women's City Club of Detroit on June 14.

New officers and those just retired from office, new directors and those whose terms are over three years of service, new committee chairmen and members who have just completed this responsibility were all on hand at 10 a.m. in the Executive Suite for Mrs. Hunter's welcome and introduction of the president, Mrs. Roy H. Edwards, of Birmingham, who is starting her second year of office.

Activities, civic affairs, house-keeping and financing were the chief topics covered in the transitional session on how best operations are to be continued in the largest city club in the country.

MRS. DAVID H. GEE of Birmingham, chairman of the Art Aloose show for June, had advice from art chairman Mrs. Carl H. Zuber, who motors into Detroit frequently from her Squirrel Road home for all sorts of civic and social responsibilities, and from Mrs. Clarence K. Patterson of Orchard Lake, an artist herself and an art committee member at the City Club.

An exhibition including weaving, sculpture and paintings included the work of Mae Douglas, Dr. Murray Douglas, Mrs. Merrill Bush, Mrs. Douglas Stuart and Mrs. James Allen, all of Birmingham; Aileen Avuli of Romeo and Gertrude Karjak of Pontiac.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Van-Akkeren of Oak Park, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter Betty Ann Robert to Lt. Bruce P. Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald P. Robert of Eastmoor Road, Bloomfield Township. Miss Van-Akkeren is presently a senior in the School of Home Economics at Purdue University. She is affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha Society and Kappa Delta Pi educational honorary. Lt. Robert is a graduate of Birmingham High School and Purdue. Currently he is serving in the United States Army at Dreux, France. He is a member of Triangle Fraternity and Sigma Delta Chi journalistic honorary.
