Memory Books Filled As Seniors Are Feted

By HELEN PETERS

Most graduation exercises are over, and one thing is for certain, Seniors' memories are as full as they have many happy memories of the last whirl of parties they attended with classmates.

Last Thursday, Sally John and Franice Quillen had an open house at the John home on Partan Road. That evening things were really swinging when Toby and Terry Stern, Joanne Ross, and Kathi Square collaborated on a "Fest party" and outfit show at the home of Toby and Terry's parents, the Will Krauses of Glenberry Circle.

On Friday, Wendy Hutton and

Lynne Underdown, entertained some of their classmates at a luncheon at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. Among the guests were Mary Jane Purdy, Louise Ross, Susan Bonick, Joanne Ross, Ann Noonan, Janet Cutting, Franca Baldwin, Shanna Standes, Donna Scott, Sally John, Sue Peters, Franice Quillen, Linda Perneck, Patty Hudrick, Nilla Womertberg, Tolly Jo Dickson, Sylvia Felton, Sandy Albert, Corinne Fisher, Sue Collins and Marvia Warren.

Others included Lauri Smith, Sally Kelly, Katia Shroves, Ann Smith, Sue Heldelschite, Christine Laflaw, Jennifer Jackson, Martha Kimmon, Jane Whitney, Sue Lundin, Kris Forster, Sue Atkinson, Andy Stiebel, Char Bosworth, Emily Edwards and Marilyn Merker.

Following the luncheon, Sue Lundin entertained a large group at a lawn party at her home on Tottenham Road.

ALSO LAST Thursday, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Scott of Kennewash Road had a luncheon for members of their family at Kingsley Inn after their daughter Valerie's graduation. An interesting guest was Mrs. Scott's sister, Mrs. C. E. Finington, of Las Vegas, who had flown in the night before from Paris. She has been personal secretary to Marlene Dietrich the past few months.

Sunday, the William Collins of Woodland Road honored their daughter Janet at an open house after her graduation from Immaculata High School.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Walsh of Burning Bush Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Paula E., to Robert E. Henry of Bluffton, Ind., at a party preceding her commencement activities at St. Mary's College for Women, Notre Dame, Ind., on June 1. The couple plan to be married next spring. Preceding her graduation from St. Mary's, Paula was graduated from Shuler Heights High School in 1961. Her fiancé was graduated this month from Notre Dame's School of Engineering and will do graduate work at the University in September.

MR. AND MRS. Charles M. Pierce of Tiverton Road, recently returned from Buena Vista, where they met their daughter Mary, who goes to Southern Seminary. The three of them then drove on to Washington, D. C., to visit daughter Carol and their niece, Amette Gagner, who are working in the Capital this year and sharing an apartment together.

Mrs. Harold Tanner of Ardmore Drive entertained the alumnae of National Park Seminary at luncheon in her home last Tuesday. This organization is active all over the country, even though the school is no longer in existence. It was located in Forest Glen, Md., taken over during the war by the government and made into a convalescent hospital.

Carol Andrea Rouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rouse of Cranford, Md., is being married June 20 to Norman Lee Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Miller of Detroit. Several parties have been given in her honor including the brunch and round-the-clock shower by Mrs. John P. Richardson of Wilkesbury Road, and Mrs. Richard G. Brooks of Rochester. On June 19, Mrs. Steven Stables is having a luncheon and linen shower at her home on Wrenwood Drive.

Still more parties, include the luncheon and recipe shower on June 20, by Mrs. John E. Lane of Larchlea Road; June 21, a dessert bridge and personal shower given by Mary Merritt of Royal Oak, and June 26, Michael Forster is having a bridge luncheon at the Forest Lake Country Club.

Have You Met . . .

Donald and Ruth Schmidt of 6315 East Surrey in Foxcroft? Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt moved from Grand Rapids recently with their two daughters, Willow Ann, 6 and Cindy June, 4.

Schmidt is a staff supervisor for the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. He is a graduate of Truism College and Mrs. Schmidt graduated from Wayne as a registered nurse. They both enjoy gardening in their spare time.
