

Guests Arrive in Fire Truck To Start Gay Farewell Party

BY ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

The Charles Morises of Bolingbroke Drive hosted a pot luck supper and farewell party for the Jack Dinkalos of Birmingham who are moving to Connecticut.

Starting the party off with a "hang" were a group of guests arriving in an old Birmingham fire truck. Chauffeur of the old relic was Merritt Olsen who bought the truck years ago for sentimental reasons.

The rest of the guests, all of the stewardship class of the First Baptist Church of Birmingham, arrived by normal means.

ON THURSDAY morning Charles Morse, Jr. and Chris Hoffman of Dortmund, Germany, an exchange student and member of the Morse household since September, were graduated from Seaborn High School. Graduates, friends, relatives and teachers returned to the Morse home for a buffet luncheon following the morning exercises.

Chuck will attend Kalamazoo College in the fall, while Chris will return to Germany. Chris will leave Birmingham July 18th for Montreal where he will join a group of 300 European students who will be leaving for their homelands after a year's stay in America.

Joan Attai and her sister, Raphael, of Trinidad were houseguests at the George Malby home on Upton Road for a few days recently. Joan and Susan Malby were both June graduates of Seina Heights College. Raphael came from Trinidad to attend his graduation exercises. She will travel to New York city with her sister.

Among the Bloomfield Hills High School June graduates leaving in the fall for college are Eileen Olson of Kermway Drive. She will attend Michigan State. Judy Duff of Parkman Drive has enrolled in Western College for Women at Oxford, Ohio. Joel Wise of Kermway Drive will be a student at Ferris Institute as will James A. Cicchetti of Parkman Drive.

THE ROGIER Crutons of Ashover Drive spent five fun-filled days touring New York city recently.

The Cyril Maxwells of Hlyane Drive entertained at a farewell party for departing friends on Saturday evening. Their guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Donald King of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Fry of Farmington are all moving to Cleveland this month.

Prior to the party the Maxwells spent a busy week in New York city. They dined at such places as the Four Seasons, Fonda Du Sol and Terrace on the Green. They also managed to attend "The American" and "My Fair Lady" while there.

JOINING THEM in New York were former Birmingham residents Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Clark who spent the past two years in Bogota, Columbia. The Clarks will make their home in New Jersey.

Maxwell, recently retired from Shell Oil Co., was presented a plaque for 34 years of service with the company during his New York stay.

The Jack Haywards of Royal Oak are enjoying their new home on North Adams Road. They have two sons, Rodney, 13, and Jeffery, 10. Hayward is a superintendent of the body shop of Fisher Body Co. Fishing is one of the family's interests.

KERN LAKE Garden Club members gathered at the Rotunda Inn for their annual luncheon and election of officers Tuesday afternoon.

Elected for the 1962-63 year are president, Mrs. Eugene Nosar of Ohio to visit. Son Paul Kraemer arrived home from the University of Michigan with plenty of laundry. Then Mrs. Kraemer's two sisters, Mrs. Jack Krawick and Mrs. Jacob Boll, and their families arrived for Louise Kraemer's graduation. Also on hand was grandmother, Mrs. Nadeau. Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Kraemer of Flint.

DR. AND MRS. Allen Weiner of Labser Road attended the graduation of their son, Stephen, June 10 at the University of Miami of Ohio.

EIGHTY-FIVE men from Our Lady Queen of Martyrs were on hand for the second annual all-day "Stag Day" June 2 at Morse's Golf and Country Club. The first golfers took the green at 8:30 a. m. and final play ended at 6:30 p. m. Later the men enjoyed a chicken dinner and refreshments. The affair was sponsored by the Ushers' Club.

NOT CONTENTED with a full school year at U. of D., Kathleen Wholihan of Verona Circle leaves today for Michigan State University for the summer session.

THE LARGEST graduating class of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs attended a breakfast in the school hall, followed by the presentation of scholastic and service awards. In the afternoon the students were honored with a dance and reception in the social hall. Ending the school activities was a class picnic.

On June 8, they attended the graduation at Liggett of their niece Johanna Schwoosen.

In the evening the Thompsons met with members of the Mackenzie High School commencement class at Venetian Hall to observe the 20th anniversary.

A nephew, Lieut. Wm. L. Ross received his degree from West Point and was honored at a reception given by Mrs. Wm. Ross, which the Thompsons also attended.

The Thompsons plan to attend two more receptions before the season ends next week.

Garden Club Meets, Installs New Officers

by NORMA WHOLIHAN
MI 6-2307

Eighteen members and guests of the West Beverly Hills Garden Club met for a luncheon at Devon Gables June 7 to install new officers for the 1962-64 season. Mrs. Robert Engel, the outgoing president, was presented with a plant in appreciation for her services. She is succeeded by Mrs. Harry Vibbert, Jr. Mrs. Walter J. Zimmerman is vice-president; Mrs. Mrs. Clarence McKee, treasurer.

Following the Devon Gables meeting the club visited the wild flower garden at Mrs. Hans Schjolin's house on Stoneybrook lane.

The Garden Club's next meeting is scheduled for June 28, when a picnic and plant exchange at the home of Mrs. Charles Shepherd of Riverside will be on the agenda. Mrs. James Moorecroft and Mrs. Walter J. Zimmerman will serve as co-hostesses for this meeting.

THE JAMES R. Thompsons of Stellamar have been busy all week with graduations and school affairs.

On June 8, they attended the graduation at Liggett of their niece Johanna Schwoosen.

In the evening the Thompsons met with members of the Mackenzie High School commencement class at Venetian Hall to observe the 20th anniversary.

A nephew, Lieut. Wm. L. Ross received his degree from West Point and was honored at a reception given by Mrs. Wm. Ross, which the Thompsons also attended.

The Thompsons plan to attend two more receptions before the season ends next week.
