

The cold war affects, of all things, the perfume industry. No essences from Laos, no musk from the Tonkin Mountains, of China. Formosa is interested in the export of camphor and menthol only when it needs the revenue. But somehow cedarwood gets through from Kenya, eucalyptus, coconut and palm oils from the Congo.

Family Heads for Germany; Son is Third High in Class

by NITA HARD
 MA 6-3221

Robert Rottiers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Rottiers of Tweed Drive graduated with distinction from Groves High school last Thursday night as third highest in the school's first graduating class.

Before leaving for Colorado Springs University to fill his appointment as a cadet in the Air Force Academy, Rottiers spent the week camping with his family in the Upper Peninsula.

Mrs. Eugene Kelly of Redfern Drive will bid farewell to her Franklin friends tomorrow. Mrs. Kelly will join her husband in Koenigsstein, Germany.

ALSO GOING are the three Kelly children, Eugene Kirk (a Groves grad, too) Dick, (just graduated from Franklin school) and six-year-old Cricket. All will spend some time in Wisconsin at the family cottage before sailing for Europe July 1.

Taking over his father's place in handling arrangements, young Eugene and a friend will take their 40 foot cruiser, the Leprechaun, to New Jersey where it will be shipped by freighter for use on waterways which are accessible to the small mountain village.

After spending the summer in Germany with his family, young Eugene will return to Michigan

Graduate Scholarship Goes To Local Wife and Mother

Recipient of a Rural Public Library Graduate Scholarship is Mrs. Edward X. Tuttle Jr. of Northgate Drive who plans to continue her studies this summer at the University of Michigan. Her goal is a master's degree in library science.

Administered by the Michigan State Board for Libraries, the scholarship funds are made available under the Federal Library Service Act—quite a mouthful but not to this proud librarian-to-be.

MRS. TUTTLE won her BA from Smith College in English. Cheering her on toward her target are her architect husband and three children: Nora, 13; Nancy, 11; and Roy, 8.

LATHRUP
 Cub Scouts from Pack 1344 held their annual father-and-son picnic at Lola Valley Park on a recent Saturday. The boys competed in relay races and a baseball game with their fathers and prizes were awarded to boys from each den winning the races.
