

June Sets Pace, Bows to Tradition

Peter James of Jamestown, N. Y., was best man, and ushers included James J. Prial of Bloomfield Hills, Thomas W. Connor of Santa Barbara, Calif.; Eric Norton Jr., of Madison Heights; Herbert James of Jamestown; Floyd Bant of Bloomfield Hills, and Herb Houghton of Brighton.

Following an outdoor reception in the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a three-week tour of Europe. They will be at home after July 4 at 201 Southfield Road, Birmingham.

Lucas-Blamy

GAIL ANN BLAMY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blamy Jr. of Cleary Road, Birmingham, was married June 16 to Donald Michael Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas of Pontiac. The ceremony, followed by a reception at Pine Lake Country Club, took place at 7:30 p.m. in All Saints Episcopal Church, Pontiac.

Bouquet taffeta fashioned the bridal gown which was made with a controlled belt skirt, three-quarter-length sleeves and a chapel train. A cluster of bows and imported flowers held a bouffant veil of French silk illusion, and the bride carried a prayer book to which she fastened a spray of white orchids.

Lynne Bente of Pontiac was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Barbara Wheeler of Battle Creek; Mrs. William Hansen, Carol Esser and Marcin Galbraith, all of Pontiac. Ushers were James Galbraith of Ypsilanti. They wore sheath dresses of aqua chiffon over taffeta, matching hats, and carried cascade bouquets of yellow and white daisies, yellow roses and ivy.

Douglas Lucas of Ypsilanti was best man, and seating the guests were Michael Strang, Richard Hathaway and William Hansen of Pontiac; John Blamy and Stewart Lord of Birmingham; Owen Murtagh and John Knisley were ring bearer and flower girl.

Following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple is now at home in Ann Arbor.

Podlesak-Eustis

PRECEDING their arrival at St. James Episcopal Church June 16, Pamela Channer Eustis and Robert George Podlesak were hosts as guests at a brunch given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calver of Yarmouth Road, Birmingham. Members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests were included in the group.

Later in the day, Pamela walked up the aisle of the church on the arm of her father wearing a wedding gown fashioned of white peau de soie accented by a semi-sheath skirt, Alencon lace and court train. Her bouffant veil of French silk tulle was a cluster of orange blossoms.

Mary Lee Eustis was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids, all of whom wore turquoise peau de soie of the bridegroom; Beverly Goss of Birmingham; Mrs. Harold Chappell of East Lansing and Elizabeth Eustis, another sister of the bride.

Richard Hoekstad of Flint, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Robert Carr of Lansing, Thomas Kenniott of Chicago and Norman Mills of Hillsdale.

Following a reception at the Village Woman's Club, the bridal couple left on a trip to the Poconos and New York City. They will be at home in Flint after June 20.

Brown-Roberson

THE FIRST Presbyterian Church of Birmingham was the scene June 16 of the marriage of Nancy Jane Roberson and Robert Little Brown. The pair exchanged their vows at 7:30 o'clock before Dr. W. Glen Hains, after which a reception was given at Forest Lake Country Club.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberson of Riverside Drive, Beverly Hills, and her husband is the son of Mrs. J. M. McGarry of Greenville, S. C., and the late Charles L. Brown.

An Alencon lace bodice, fashioned the bridal robes which also included a full-length chapel train. A butterfly veil of French illusion fell from a crown of lilies of the valley, and the bride carried a prayer book to which orchids and Stephanotis had been fastened.

Marilin Fillmore of Detroit was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Margaret Elizabeth McGarry of Greenville, S. C., sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Robert F. Lovey of Ann Arbor and Nancy Meitz of Detroit. They all wore maize organza over taffeta and matching headpieces. Their flowers were pink rapture roses.

J. Maxwell McGarry was best man for his stepson, and ushers included John P. Robinson, brother of the bride; Alexander N. Carpenter of Cleveland and Thomas M. Creech of Greenville.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will be at home in Allen Park after July 1.

Phillips-Hammond

AT A DOUBLE RING ceremony on June 16 Mary Lucinda Hammond, daughter of Mrs. Harold J. Hammond of Royal Oak and the late Mr. Hammond, spoke her marriage vows to Thomas Anthony Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Phillips of Sibley Drive, Beverly Hills. The ceremony took place in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

The bride wore a gown of ivory-embroidered organza, the formal skirt possessing into a full circular train. Her silk illusion veil was held in place by a pearlized wreath and she carried ivory cymbidium orchids shaded with yellow and white carnations.

Frances Kelly of Detroit, maid of honor and only attendant for the bride, wore a yellow raw silk dress for the occasion and carried white daisies with yellow centers.

Thomas A. Manewicz of Birmingham was best man and ushers were David Hammond, brother of the bride, and Dr. Lee Anderson, a brother-in-law of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will be at home in Evanston, Ill.

Metzger-Fleming

MILICENT GARNER Fleming and Gerald William Metzger exchanged vows June 16 in St. John's Episcopal Church, Royal Oak. A reception followed in the church parlors.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Ernest Fleming of Foxcroft, Birmingham, wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta with re-embroidered lace and a semi-sheath skirt. Her bouffant veil of French silk tulle was a cluster of orange blossoms.

Mrs. John Henry Fleming II of Detroit was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Phyllis Marie Suhr of Pine Lake and Charlotte Lucile Coan of New York City. Flower girl was Lisa Hupp Fleming. They all wore white embroidered organza over turquoise taffeta with matching hats and shoes.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick Metzger of Toledo, Ohio, had as his best man George Lyon of Birmingham. Ushers were Mark Eilers of Warren; Jack Petzoldt of Grosse Pointe Farms; John Fleming II and Robert Auld. Ring bearer was Jon Scott Morrison.

Following a trip to Florida, the newweds will live in Warren, Mich.

Morgan-Hobert

BARBARA LYNN Hobart and William Christopher Morgan III exchanged marriage vows in a double-ring ceremony Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Hobart of Birmingham. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morgan Jr., formerly of Birmingham, reside in DeLand, Fla. Grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Vibbert, of Bentley attended the ceremony.

The bride wore a Bianchi gown of blossom white mouseline de soie. Pearls and aurora crystals traced a floral pattern over the bodice designed with crescent-curved scalloped edges and long sleeves. Beneath the lifted satin cinched waistline, the bouffant skirt fell in soft Watteau catches. A bandeau of the silk and beaded motif of the gown secured her French silk illusion cathedral length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley with variegated ivy.

Carol Williams of Georgetown, Md., formerly of Birmingham, was maid of honor with bridesmaids Margaret Stage of Shaker Heights, Ohio and Patricia Russell of Baltimore, Md. The attendants were gowned alike in honey beige, styled with bodices of Alencon lace and short bell-collared skirts.

Each wore olive-colored slippers and band headpieces with yellow veil and carried nosegays of arrangements of pink miniature roses and ivy.

Jon L. Plexico of Birmingham served as best man. Ushers were William R. Laney Jr., brother-in-law of the groom, Seattle, Wash.; Phillip S. Plexico, New York; Robert A. Vibbert, uncle of the bride, Birmingham; Richard H. Tyler, North Adams, Mass.; Robert O. Herrmann, Chevy Chase, Md.

The groom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner party for the wedding group and out-of-town guests at the Fox and Hounds. Following the ceremony, the wedding reception was held at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Pitcher-Warren

CAROL LEE WARREN became the bride of Gary Lee Pitcher at a ceremony in Kanley Memorial Chapel at Western Michigan University on June 8. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren of Bearing Road, Birmingham, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pitcher of Pinesdale Park, Fla.

Carol wore a ballerina-length gown of white silk organza with a basque bodice, long sleeves and a scooped neckline. Her short veil was of imported illusion and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white carnations centered with yellow rosebuds.

Patricia Ann Warren, twin sister of the bride, served as maid of honor, and Ann Evans of Ludington was bridesmaid. Patricia's gown of white lace over apricot taffeta was similar to the bride's worn by the bridesmaid. Both carried nosegays of white carnations.

Donald Pitcher served his brother as best man, and ushers were Richard Pitcher, another brother, and Frank Sturgis.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Chapel Hall. The couple will make their home in Kalamazoo and continue their studies.

Scott-Scott

CYNTHIA ANN SCOTT, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stewart Scott of Birmingham spoke her marriage vows June 16 to Glenn Allen Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Scott, also of Birmingham. The ceremony took place in the First Baptist Church, with a reception in the church parlors following.

The bride designed her dress of Alencon lace and organza which featured full-length sleeves, a bell skirt and circular chapel train. Her short veil was held in place by two organza rays trimmed with seed pearls and she carried cymbidium orchids with ivy.

Nancy Chinn of Beverly Hills was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Valerie Scott, Carol Olsen, Linda Steiner and Nancy Madison. They all wore azure blue taffeta with carried daisies, delphinium and corn flowers. The bride's youngest sister, Jody Elizabeth, was flower girl. Her dress was white organza over blue.

Dunne Scott of Findlay, Ohio, was best man, and seating the guests were Bruce Scott, Roy Scott, Gary Fuller and Gerry Sherman.

The newweds are currently attending the University of Northern Michigan, and in September will leave for Montana State University where both will attend school.
