

Hosts Compensate For Travel by Air

By HELEN PETERS
MI 4-8320

The William Cartwrights of Brookwood Road, entertained Saturday night at a bon voyage party for the B. Kenneth Sandens who, with their children Judy and Sandy, are flying to Europe July 6.

The theme and all decorations of the party had to do with an ocean liner, point being to show the Sandens what they'll miss by skipping travel by boat. They had Captain's Night, horse races (with play money) and were toasted with champagne.

Among those enjoying the fun were Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. William Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gilles, Mr. and Mrs. William Salkow, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cahn and Mrs. Clarence Hatch.

Last meeting of the season was held Monday afternoon for Birmingham members of Crittenton General Hospital Auxiliary. Mrs. Ormond Wessels entertained the group at her home on Lake Park. Assisting her were Mrs. Jack Gordon and Mrs. Roy Washburn. Among the guests were Mesdames William Daniels, Ralph Samuel, Edward Warren, E. H. Van Norwick, Stanley Brans, Carl Snyder, James Hyde, Harold Kennedy, Arthur Risdon and Karl Lattner.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Miller are having the rehearsal dinner at Pine Lake Country Club Friday night preceding the wedding of their son, Norman, and Carol Andra Rose, which takes place Saturday morning. Members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests are invited.

WEEK-END GUESTS of Mrs. E. H. Van Norwick of Woodale Road, were her son-in-law and daughter, the Gene A. Reeds; their children, Kathy and Greg; and Carol Leonard, all of Jackson.

Also joining the family group was Mrs. A. J. Henry, who has been spending the past few weeks visiting her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Norwick, of Walnut Hill Road.

The Richard Thorburns of Overhill Road, who are moving to Hudson, Ohio July 20, have been entertained extensively and there were more parties to come. Recently Mrs. Robert Windler of Pine Street invited all the women who had worked together in the toy department of the rummage sale at Christ Church to a luncheon in Mrs. Thorburn's honor. Also that week the James Moons of Bloomfield Hills hosted a farewell dinner.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scales of Westwood Drive had a cocktail and buffet supper party, and on June 29 a dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Slater of Williamsburg Road. The following night the Carl J. Theobalds of Kensington Road will be hosts at cocktails and dinner.

ORCHARD LAKE Country Club will be the scene Friday of a luncheon and baby shower given by Mrs. Ralph Samuel and her daughter, Mrs. Ann Follansbee, in honor of Mrs. Robert Gillow. Among the guests will be Mrs. Gillow's two grandmothers, Mrs. Charles Wetherald of Grand Blanc and Mrs. George Earle of Harsens Island; also her mother, Mrs. David Hinks, of Grosse Pointe and mother-in-law, Mrs. Peter Ellis, of Detroit.

Others will be Mrs. E. C. Eckert of Harsens Island; Mrs. Clarke Andreae, Mrs. Henry Kappeler, Mrs. Franklin Nau, Mrs. E. B. McCalland, Mrs. Paul Gibbons, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham Jr., Mrs. William Aulepp, Mrs. John Carroll and Mrs. Gary Spees of Pontiac.

Engaged

Janet Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Adams of Bloomfield Village is engaged to Richard Allen Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gray of W. Bloomfield Township. Both young people are graduates of Seaholm High, and the bridegroom-elect has also been graduated from Valley Forge Military Academy. The date of the wedding will be announced later.

Many women go on wearing the same shades of make-up year in and year out without realizing that one can outgrow them. The skin tones change with age and make-up colors must mellow too.

'Red, Hot and Blue' Keynotes Party

The warning to "stay-off-the-highway" will be warmly accepted by hundreds of Oakland Hills Country Club members, their families and guests for the Fourth of July holiday.

For several weeks the Club's committees have been making detailed plans for a fun-packed suburban holiday. The agenda features just about everything except fishing and hunting. However, late afternoon golfers have reported little "law-breakers" with pole, string and bait, adding to the hazard of the famous sixteenth hole lake.

Festivities will get under way on the evening of Tuesday, July

4, with a "Red Hot and Blue" dinner dance. Co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Brodie are assisted by party-planners Mr. and Mrs. Avery G. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lynch and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Sheehan.

There will be dancing under the stars (weather permitting) to the music of Eddie Santini and his Barons of Dixie. Also featured will be Eddie Collins (the man who played banjo on Art Mooney's recording "Four Leaf Clover"), and Mel Snyder, whose red-white-and-blue balloon sculptures will be fashioned during the cocktail hour and available to take home as souvenirs.

ON WEDNESDAY, the Fourth of July, at 10:30 a.m., the tennis courts will be taken over for a Round Robin Handicap Tournament. Men and women, boys and girls under 18, will participate. Trophies will be presented for the winners and runner-up in each group.

Edwin O. George is chairman and Richard A. Schroeter vice-chairman. The matches will be under the supervision of the Club's new tennis coach, Robert M. Giles, formerly a professional at the Queen's Club, London, and coach at Eton College, Wellington College and the Royal Military Academy.

Swimming committee chairman C. Boyd Stockmeyer and vice-chairman John A. McClanathan have planned afternoon swimming and diving exhibitions. Swimming activities are under the direction of Coach John P. Hussey.

Chester A. Cahn, golf committee chairman, and Paul Voss, vice-chairman, have arranged a mixed foursome Flag Day golf tournament, which will start at 12:30 p.m. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

The "Wild West" will live again. A herd of ponies have been corralled and will be available for trick riding. There will be gobs of cotton candy, which will no doubt find its way to tum-tums, hair and clothing of youngsters as they listen to the sweet music of the organ grinder.

Not to be overlooked, active and talented teen-agers will have the Club's broad veranda, highly polished and equipped with a juke-box, to perform their dancing skills during the entire day.

Piece de resistance of the suburban holiday will be a magnificent display of fireworks, which begins after the buffet dinner and ends before another work day.

a shorts story

First came the big car, then the midjet, then the happy medium in between. Same with trousers. First baggy knickers and slacks, then skimpy shorts, now walk-shorts at an ideal in-between length. Popular because most men know they needn't be Adonis to wear them.
