Something New in Parties: Bermuda Shorts at Tea

By LOUISE N. KRAEMER
MI 6-9316

Miss Wendy Padden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Padden of Bradley Boulevard, recently gave a delightfully different going-away party for her friend Jean Maurer, of Devonshire, who was leaving for San Francisco.

Thirty-five friends of the guest of honor arrived appropriately dressed for a Bermuda Short Tea.

Mr. and Mrs. George Onellianoff of Riverside Drive had been in their new home about a week when they were pleasantly surprised by 35 guests who arrived unannounced for a house party. They brought quantities of food, even an orchestra under the direction of Larry Larinoff. Many of the guests were members of the orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson of Amherst Road hosted one of the largest graduation parties of

To Be Bride

Sherry Templeton Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Voss of Birmingham has set Oct. 6 as the date of her marriage to John Paul Fowler of Berkeley, son of Mrs. Clarence H. Fowler of West Sacramento, Calif., and the late Mr. Fowler. The wedding will take place in Holy Name Church, Birmingham.

the season when they entertained 50 guests at a buffet supper recently.

The affair was in honor of their son, James E. Moore, who was graduated this year from Wiley E. Groves High School.

Guests were fellow classmates, including Valedictorian John Nyland and Salutatorian Carol Vine.

ST. LUCIAN Library and Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Discussion Clubs recently held their annual dinner meeting and installation of officers.

Mrs. Henry Simpowick and Mrs. Clifford Brown were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Joseph Detman was installed as chairman, Mrs. Frank Swartzburg as co-chairman and Mrs. Victor Tarabasi as secretary-treasurer.

Guests of the evening were the Rev. Arthur A. Leary of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, Mrs. Stanley Mack, Mrs. Edward Shea, Chairman of the Libraries and Literature Committee of the Archdiocese, and Mrs. Louis Lukasey, Librarian of St. Mary Magdalen Parish in Hazel Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilson Young of 31220 Pierce entertained 100 friends and relatives at a recent reception for their daughter, Mary Elizabeth Young, who was graduated from Homestead High School, and Grayson Young, from the eighth grade of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs School.

Among the guests was the girl's grandmother Mrs. E. J. McBratney of Detroit, an artist whose ceramic work was on display at the Birmingham Art Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Weiss of Beverly Road are taking their six children on their first camping trip in a brand new General Motors Camper.

They will go to Interlochen, Michigan to leave their daughter, Sally, at the National Music Camp for two weeks.

Sally plays the flute and piano, and has won musical scholarships this year from the Birmingham Musicale and the Groves Band and Orchestra Parent Club.

The Weiss' older daughter, Cheryl, who graduated from the Wiley E. Groves High School this year, played a well-received clarinet solo at graduation exercises.

TWO ENTERPRISING young lads on Landoverdale are earning their own money to go to C. Y. O. Camp.

Mark Kobelan and Dave Deporter, age 19, are running a day camp for three and four-year-olds of the neighborhood for two hours each day.

The youngsters made place mats for Fathers' Day, flags for Flag Day and held an Indian Day.

The spend many leisure planning the next day's work, and will accept no outside help or suggestions.

Mr. and Mrs. George Feback held an all-day open house recently in honor of their daughter, Judith Ann, who was graduated from Wiley E. Groves High School.

Judith Ann entertained 20 couples, her classmates, at an open house on Thursday night.

European Trip Is Planned

A trip abroad this summer will be a combination twenty-first birthday and advance graduation gift for Sally Annas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Annas of Red Oaks, Covington Road, Birmingham.

It's the special present of Sally's maternal grandmother, Mrs. John E. Moore, of Vero Beach, Fla., who arrived from the South just before Sally's birthday early in June with plans practically completed for the journey.

Mrs. Moore is also taking another granddaughter, Patricia Dwoley, of Hamden, Conn., and again this is a gift for Pat's graduation from college.

Completing the group will be Kathleen Fealy of Birmingham, Sally's sister-in-law-to-be, Sally's engagement to Tom Fealy was announced two weeks ago.

The foursome will depart by plane July 29 with Cairo their first destination. From there they will visit the Holy Land, then go to Rome, Lourdes, Paris and back home.

Date Is Set

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Kanne of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Daniel James DeBoer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James DeBoer also of Birmingham. The pair will set Aug. 25 as the date of their wedding.
