

Cherokees Win Top Honors on Nissokone Camping Trip

By VELMA McCANE
MA 6-6530

The Y. M. C. Indian guides held their annual overnight camping trip at Camp Nissokone on June 9 and 10. The camp is located on Lake Van Effen near Osooda.

The Cherokee tribe won many honors. Its archery team composed of braves averaging 8 years old won the team prize. Members included David and Marty Manley, Mark and Johnny Miller, Kevin Brands, George Lyman and Tom Zimmer. The highest scores were made by Kevin Brands and George Lyman of the Cherokees.

The Cherokees father-and-son team, represented by David Manley Sr. and David Jr., won the canoe race and brought home a large trophy.

CDR. AND MRS. David Zimmer of Middlebury Lane were included in the fun recently when Mrs. Zimmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ely, flew from Madison, Wis. to visit the Zimmer's three sons, David, Stephen and Tom.

The Milton Ricketts on Pebble Lane had many guests and relatives on Fathers' Day to honor Ronald Gary, who was graduated from Seaholm High.

Some 30 people enjoyed a buffet and punch on the terrace while they listened to Doris Smith and James Dixon an accordion combo.

Among those present were Mrs. Ricketts' mother, Mrs. Thomas Marshall, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Woodford and Mrs. Steve Taracy.

Kevin Brands, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brands of Brockbridge Lane, held a farewell party for Dick Willis, who recently moved to Portland, Oregon. The boys on hand were, David Lyman, Jeffrey DuComb, Johnny Schimpke, Jeffrey Aronsson and Vernon Fitch. These boys all attended the Valley Woods School.

Paula Struck Is Honored At Parties

Bride-elect Paula Struck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Struck of Hamilton Road, Birmingham, is being honored at numerous pre-nuptial parties preceding her marriage July 14 to Tolon Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxamill Wells also of Birmingham.

The pair will repeat their vows at a 2:30 o'clock ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook, after which a reception will be given at Orchard Lake Country Club. Mrs. A. O. Thullock of Lowell Court entertained for Paula June 20 at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at Orchard Lake Country Club, and tomorrow another luncheon will be given at the club by Mrs. Bethel B. A dinner party and bar and grudge shower will be given July 3 by Mrs. Vernon B. Myers in her home on Echo Road, and on July 10, Mrs. Robert Heim of San Francisco, will entertain in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Fullonius of Lake Angelus, at a swimming party, luncheon and round-the-clock shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner July 13 at Fox and Hounds.

SUBURBAN SCENE

Finally Ogle decided if you're going to do something, do it BIG. So like the weed, the Crabgrass Festival has been growing ever since.

Now, mind you, this is no bring-a-casserole and we'll-cook-the-hamburgers affair. The Northlanders (plus friends from surrounding streets) do this party up in style. Letters are sent out, costs are pro-rated, committees are set up, the barbecue pit is dug and 80 pounds of good, red beef is ordered.

The schedule this year goes something like this:

- 6 a.m.—Light fire, raise flag. Stirring ceremonies promised for early birds.
- 10 a.m.—Eighty pounds of beef starts turning on pit.
- 12 noon—Hot dog roast to stave off pangs of hunger.
- 2 p.m.—Games for little kids, middle-sized kids and big kids.
- 4 p.m.—White elephant exchange (guaranteed to be hysterical).
- 5 p.m.—Everybody eats!

On the Business End

This year, for the third annual Crabgrass Festival, the following chairmen are at the helm: Doug Knapp, Larry Ford, Virginia Scott, Ralph Wagner, Lisa Wagner, Mary Scott, Jean Miller, Martina Miller.

Back from New Jersey especially for the celebration will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul VanderBroek, who moved east just a few months ago from their Northlawn address. They'll be week-end houseguests of the Scotts.

Among others on tap will be newcomers to the street, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker. They have just moved to Birmingham from Australia. The Frank Sheehans will be there and so will Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts, the Tim Armstrongs and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Knapp.
