Prof Honors a Grad
Of Ferris Institute

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-8257

Professor and Mrs. Ralph Albaugh of Big Rapids, Michigan entertained at cocktails and dinner in honor of Jack Hofer who graduated from Ferris Institute recently. Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hofer of Burnham Road in Glenoe Estates.

Among the guests of Professor and Mrs. Albaugh were Jack's friend, Pat Rodzik and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Rodzik of Windsor, and Jack's sister Jan, a recent graduate of Bloomfield Hills High School who is off to the University of Michigan in the fall.

Two days after his graduation from Ferris, Jack was accepted into the service and is now awaiting his assignment.

and family gathered on the patio for buffet.

WING LAKE FARMS

The Wing Lake Farms Association held their annual meeting recently at Wing Lake School and elected officers for the forthcoming year. New president is Arthur L. Jones; vice-president, Dale S. Holl; secretary, Mrs. Jack Armstrong; treasurer, Philip M. Rothwell, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Philip Rothwell.

Comprising the board of directors are Gerald E. Jerome, Joseph G. Juett, Louis H. Larime, Edgar C. Thorne, Richard Wacholz, Dexter M. Zerby, Jack Armstrong, and Robert E. Bingham.

PLANS FOR the annual Wing Lake Farms Association picnic are underway. It will be held in July this year on the adjoining properties of Mr. and Mrs. Len Berry and Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon.

CHALMERS LAKE

BLOOMFIELD WEST

Annual WNFGA Picnic Held at Member's Home

By VELMA McCANE
MA 6-8530

The Walnut Lake branch of the WNFGA held their annual picnic at the home of member Mrs. Otto Winklemann on Old Orchard Dr. last Monday.

Mrs. G. P. Robert and her committee arranged the luncheon. Club president Mrs. Robert Carter presented awards to the lucky ones who showed their winning skill in the bridge tournament. First prize went to Mrs. Donald Irvin and Mrs. Elliott Oakwood. Second place went to Mrs. Kenneth Crumb and Mrs. William Bishop.

A consolation prize went to Mrs. Floyd Vine and Mrs. Fern Breeden.

Dick Walton, along with the Eisens, discovered that a wild duck who long ago decided the Eisen property was his home, had returned.

KIRKWOOD

The John Hellins of Hedgewood are proud these days.

On May 24 their daughter, Mrs. Lester A. Henning, and her husband presented them with a boy grandchild, Christopher John.

Another daughter, Mrs. Allen Gould Smith, and her husband sent the word from their Hyde Park, N. Y. home that David Allen, a new son, had arrived.

Have You Met . . .

The new residents at 451 Madison Road in Bloomfield Hills? They are former residents of Livonia, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Whitcroft and their four children, Debby, 5; Lisa, 3; Ricky, 2, and Rusty, four months. Mr. Whitcroft owns the F. J. Whitcroft Company, manufacturers' representatives.

The Whitcrofts enjoy golf, bridge, and skiing, and Mrs. Whitcroft is an active member of the Village Women's Club.

Mrs. Whitcroft is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCane of Old Orchard, perhaps more familiar to Birmingham Eccentric readers as Velma McCane of Bloomfield South and West. Grandma and Grandpa McCane say they are happy to have their four only grandchildren close by.

BRAES

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Fowle of Inverry Rd. had a family dinner on Friday in honor of Mrs. Fowle's cousin, Dr. D. Campbell Wyckoff, of Princeton Theological Seminary. Dr. Wyckoff came here for a consultation on Christian Education.

Other members of the family there were Mary, Nancy and Bill Fowle; Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Campbell; Mike, Don and Bruce of Eastmore Rd.; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Campbell of Pleasant Ridge.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Eisen and son Bobby spent the week end at their summer home in Onaway, Bobby's houseguest.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Former Eccentricians Edna and Harry Watts have returned to the area.

The Watts, with their three sons, Jeff, Elton, and Steve, have spent the past few years in Fort Wayne and Chicago, where Mr. Watts was associated with the Hind and Dache division of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

The family is residing temporarily on Broadway Boulevard.

CHALMERS LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Whitcroft of Malibu have recently from a flying fun-filled trip west. They flew to San Francisco for four days of sightseeing combined with the business of a convention Mr. Forshaw was attending, and then on to Seattle for three days at the World's Fair.

WILLIAMSBURG

Most of the garden clubs have disbanded for the summer, but the newly formed Williamsburg branch, WNFGA, will continue throughout the summer months.

The July meeting of the Williamsburg branch will be at the home of Mrs. Everett Mills, Mrs. John Sprague and Mrs. E. Ray Carter will be co-hostesses.

The subject of the meeting will be a lecture on dried arrangements by Mrs. Arthur Strailer of Holly, Mich.

LONE PINE ACRES

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Whitcroft of Malibu have only been in their new home for two weeks. Last Friday evening they invited 14 of their former neighbors in Livonia to join them for a "house-warming open house."

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Foss, who moved into their new home at 515 North Glenhurst last week? The Foss family, which includes Philip, Jr., a student at Seaborn High, and Charles, who is 12 and will attend Barnum, are from Seattle, Wash.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Foss are graduates of the University of Washington. Mr. Foss is manager of the Eastman Kodak Stores, Inc., on Grand River in Detroit. He enjoys golf in his spare time.
