

Water Ballet To Spark Club Luncheon

A refreshing idea for summer entertainment is in store for the ladies of Forest Lake Country Club when they have their monthly luncheon on Wednesday, July 11: A "Water Ballet Luncheon" is almost self-explanatory.

Twelve very pretty teen-age girls, who are club members' daughters, will put on a synchronized show to tunes ranging from Hawaiian music to Basin Street jazz. These mermaids are Ginny Walls, Diane Schwayer, Tina Steele, Laura Hays, Judy Wright, Kathy Forbush, Joan Palmer, Kathy Riley, Sue Henry, Ann LeFevre and Margaret Close.

In-between ballet acts there will be a moment of comedy put on by the pool staff. Mrs. James E. Steele is in charge of this event. Assisting her will be Mesdames Henry Hardy, Albert Connor, George Atherholt, Robert Close, Kenneth Palmer, Herschel Miller, Walter Riley, Alexander Hillcoat, Harold Hall and George Bowman.

'Twenties Roar into Birmingham

Members of the Birmingham Country Club and their guests attended a Roaring Twenties party Saturday night which included cocktails, dinner-dancing and a spectacular floor show written and presented by club members themselves. Among those who dressed the part for festivities were Seaholm classmates Terry Stern and Berrie Wilson, who obliged their parents by acting as cigaret girls for the evening. Richard S. Kelley waited while Gene Tappero set his camera to get a picture story of the rollicking affair.

Details to watch when shopping for a swim suit: Shiny fabrics make you look heavier, splashy patterns are only for skinnies, wool knit is more comfortable for ocean-lipping, cotton for sun bathing.

Light navy blue might prove the new fashion color for lingerie.
