

Make Solo Appearance

Archie Brown of Birmingham, president of the Scandinavian Symphony Society and Mrs. Henry G. Hamby of Detroit, president of the Scandinavian Symphony Women's Organization congratulate Walter Schrott, pianist, after his solo appearance with the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra, during the coffee hour following the concert. Mr. Schrott, director of the Birmingham Conservatory of Music, received glowing reports of his work with the Celeste Cello Opera Workshop recently.

Working on Benefit

Mrs. George Dillworth (left) of Oak Hills Drive, and Mrs. Louis Conroy of Pilgrim Street, Birmingham, are working on the U of D High School Unit of the Jesuit Seminary Association's benefit open house. The event is slated Sunday from 2 until 6 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gage of Detroit. Proceeds will go to aid the cost of education of the Jesuit seminarians at Columbiere College, Milford.

Simpsons in Phoenix

Enjoying the winter sunshine at Camelback Inn near Phoenix are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Simpson of Birmingham. They were guests at the Inn while Mr. Simpson attended the Lincoln-Mercury national sales meeting held there.

'Gala Nite' Held at U of D

The U of D High Mothers' Club held its annual Gala Nite Saturday. Mrs. Edward Stenger was chairman and Mrs. Malcolm was her co-chairman. For over 25 years, the club annually has sponsored a family party which has been aptly named "Gala Nite." This year's party was called "Gala Nite in the Orient" and the decorations followed the theme. Mrs. LaVerne Ragsdale was chairman of decorations and her co-chairman was Mrs. William Potter. Proceeds from the party will be used to refinish the library floor, to purchase a new projector for the "Little Theater," and to replace the draperies in the library.

Tri Deltas Gather For General Meeting

The North Woodward Group of the Birmingham Alumnae of Delta Delta Delta served as hostesses for a general meeting of all three units of the organization Tuesday afternoon. Members gathered at the Huntington Woods home of Mrs. Harry Osgood for dessert at 12:30 p. m.

The program for the afternoon featured a book review of a recent novel by alumnae member Mrs. Thomas P. Marker of Birmingham. Mrs. Marker holds degrees from both Northwestern and Michigan Universities and is the author of numerous short stories and novels, one of which was made into a movie several years ago. Her short stories have appeared under the pen name of Mary McSherry in both American and Canadian magazines.

MRS. JOHN CANAVAN, President

Marion Goodale In Cleveland

Miss Marion E. Goodale, headmistress at Kingswood School Cranbrook, is in Cleveland where she is presiding for the first time as president of the National Association of Principals of Schools for Girls.

Works on Campaign

With the slogan, "The YW for You in '62," the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit begins a jet-drive March first for 1500 new and renewed memberships. Among the 1500 women serving as campaign workers from Birmingham are Mrs. Henry DeWitt of Bolivine Trail; Rose Dempsey of Highland Drive; and Anna Kraimer of Lakewood Drive.

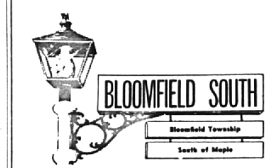

DOLORES MAGYAR

To Become Bride Of Paul McGaffey

Mr. and Mrs. John Magyar of Cleveland, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dolores Marie, to Paul O. McGaffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGaffey of Daines Street, Birmingham.

Both Dolores and Paul are seniors at the University of Detroit. The bride-elect resides in Detroit and teaches in one of the Detroit elementary schools.

No wedding date has been set.

Valma McCane MA 6-6530

Garden Club Members Work on Terrariums

WESTCHESTER — Westchester branch WNFCA members have been working on terrariums recently.

Mrs. Boris Osojnak held a terrarium work shop at her home on Kearsney where Mrs. Donald Kustinen was chairman of the terrarium demonstration which was held for the residents of Presbyterian Village in Livonia. Assisting Mrs. Kustinen were Mrs. Mel Goodell, president of the Westchester branch, Mrs. Robert Erwin, Mrs. Earle Heft and Mrs. Boris Osojnak.

Mrs. R. A. Glauffer, Mrs. L. V. Nagle Jr., Mrs. Robert W. Griffith and Mrs. Steven A. Varga are the four new members admitted into the club at the last meeting.

The meeting of the Greater Westchester Area Association, scheduled to take place on Wednesday was cancelled. Another one is planned for March.

MAPLE-CRANBROOK — Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Busha, 110 So. Wilhamsburg road, were their daughter and son-in-law, the C. R. Vigstedts of Arlington Heights, Ill. Added thrill for the Bushas was seeing grandchildren Nancy, Bobby and Carol.

Nancy Nelson of Trynham Place flew to Pittsburgh, Pa. recently to be the guest of Tim Bannon of Bloomfield Hills at the Winter Festival of Kiski Prep School which young Bannon attends. The young folks enjoyed skiing, skating and a swimming meet, winding up on Saturday evening with a buffet and a formal dance at the hotel.

BERKSHIRES — At the next meeting of the Berkshire branch WNFCA at the Community House on Tuesday at 12:30, Lucille Ingram will discuss "Lighting Your Garden Effectively." Mrs. Ingram is with the Detroit Edison Co.

Club members, Mrs. Norman McCarty will give gardening tips on "Now Is the Time To..." and Mrs. Archie McGill will supply tips on "Rose Culture."

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. T. J. Connell, Mrs. George Webster, Mrs. Henry Botsford, Mrs. George Frezer and Mrs. W. T. McAuley.

WEST BLOOMFIELD — Mrs. Clyde Hovitt, of Knollwood Lane, relays word that the Friendship League of the Ferndale Seventh Day Adventist Church visited Pontiac State Hospital on St. Valentine's Day. Mrs. Hovitt, with other League members, took Valentines and birthday gifts for the 57 patients of Vinton Cottage. Games and refreshments were also included.

Place, Date Changed For Garden Meeting

WALNUT LAKE — The meeting of the Walnut Lake Beauty Shop gave helpful hints on the care of hair, nails and skin. The troop is carrying the sport badge by bowing Saturday mornings at Star Lanes.

The meeting of the Walnut Lake branch of WNFCA has been changed to the home of Mrs. E. F. Bergman, 6045 Darramore Drive where members will gather March 5 at 12:30 to listen to A. H. Goldner on the interesting topic of "Specimens or Combinations; Use Unusual Plants — Then Admire." Goldner is from the Walsh Nurseries.

The tea committee will be headed by Mrs. A. E. Lofquist, aided by Mrs. William Loll, Mrs. Frank Nagelewart and Mrs. G. Stewart.

Mrs. R. A. Carter, club president has announced the following nominating committee: Mrs. Henry Hall, Mrs. G. P. Robert, Mrs. William Loll, Mrs. A. E. Lofquist and Mrs. Paul Colbrook.

BRAS — Very recently, Mrs. Robert Eisen and Mrs. Jim Bernard, both of Eastmore Drive, drove to Oxford, Ohio to pick up Mrs. Eisen's daughter, Lynn, who is a student at Miami University, Lynn and her friend, Howard Schwab, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schwab of Birmingham, came back for a few days visit with their parents.

WALNUT LAKE — On Feb. 10 the Birmingham district Girl Scouts, of which Walnut Lake is a part, will have an international flag ceremony, with approximately 2,500 girls and leaders participating.

Mrs. H. G. Sims has taken over the leadership of Troop 335 which will continue to meet at Walnut Lake School from 3 to 4 p.m. every Wednesday. On Feb. 14 a St. Valentine party was enjoyed by the youngsters and they are also busy making posters for the 50th anniversary celebration.

Exchange Students Attend Club Meeting

Soroptimist Club members and guests attended a meeting last Thursday at Devon Gables. Patricia Gordon, a foreign exchange student, told about her experiences in Germany. She was sponsored by the Americans Abroad, phase of the AFS. Her mother, Mrs. William Gordon, was also a guest.

Students sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches are Diane Lermingy, who spent her year in Goochoven, Holland; and Harvey Wallace, who was in Solingen, Germany.

INTERMEDIATE Troop 973, under Mrs. Haystack McClelland, recently met in connection with the good grooming badge. Betty Kelly

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX
Dull Lustre

These are suits of fine imported worsted in a minutely ribbed weave that catches highlights to give the fabric a subtle sheen. "Dull Lustre" imparts a princely patina to a range of this season's favorite colors. This rich suiting drapes handsomely in the natural (but flatteringly slim) lines of Hart Schaffner & Marx styling. $89.50

Dickinson's
Wabeek Building Birmingham Saginaw at Lawrence Pontiac

Spring is Home Improvement Time

Whether you plan a porch, a garage, or a recreation room, you should come in and see us. We have the lowest Home Improvement bank rates available in the area. Have your Home Improvement Contractor write your FHA financing through Birmingham Bloomfield Bank. We're open 'til 6 p.m. on Friday and 9:00 'til noon on Saturday. Weekdays until 4:00 p.m.

It's Better to Bank in Birmingham at the
BIRMINGHAM-BLOOMFIELD BANK
250 MARTIN STREET, BIRMINGHAM
(across Bates from the Post Office & Library)

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION AND FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

PRESCRIPTIONS
Dedicated To The Health
And Welfare Of This Community

FREE DELIVERY
For Emergency Service — Midwest 4-7546
10:30 P.M. to 7:00 A.M.

SHAIN'S REXALL DRUG
105 West Maple, Birmingham Midwest 4-2121