The fifth Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair will be held at Cobo Hall on March 24 through 27. All students are invited to enter.

In order to be eligible for the fair, students must qualify at a preliminary district science fair at Derby.

Groves student Stan Swalek, one of last year's winners is already busily working on this year's project.

FIFTY STUDENTS from the Groves music department participated in the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association district four Solo and Ensemble Festival, held on Feb. 10 at Fernalde High School.

The largest number of entries from the two secondary schools in Birmingham came from Groves. Visitors to the Century 21 Exposition in Seattle, Wash., next year, will be able to eat while "in orbit." A restaurant perched atop a 500-foot, steel-supported, tower will revolve slowly at the rate of once an hour.

The 10 finalists for Seaholm's Piper have been elected by the senior class. From a list of eighteen candidates, ten, including Emily Edwards, Greg Frontier, Patsy Gordon, Virginia Grison, Sue Hebbelwhite, Bob Kennedy, Frances Quillian, Mary Randall, Murray Stewart, and Annie Stickle, were chosen. Each finalist will be photographed and written up as if he might be featured in the yearbook.

SEAHOLM SPIRIT shined—glowed would be better. On Friday, Feb. 23, a bonfire was held before the basketball game. Many students came, and termed it a success. Heading the committee for the bonfire were Andie Stickle, Dave Sanders, and Andie Everett. Publicity chairman was Sue Thacker; Bill Shroyer and Greg Frontier gathered all the wood needed. Frank Green made sure the fire was out; and Craig Johnson headed the clean-up. As another project to promote school spirit, the committee has arranged to rent a Greyhound bus to take interested students to the state swimming meet at Ann Arbor on March 10.

IN THE ANNUAL Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association's Solo and Ensemble Festival held at Fernalde Feb. 10, twenty-eight Seaholm students arranged in 10 different groups to win first, second and third division awards. A first division award makes the winner eligible for competition in the state solo and Ensemble Festival, held March 24 at Mount Pleasant. Receiving the first place award were the percussion quintet of Craig Wilcox, Chuck Wessels, Charley Dick, Jim Fox, and Tim Sauerbraz; Cecilia Forch, Sue Koenke, Paul Engardie, Bill Stepp, string quartet; and Tom Baehr, flute solo. Others include Brenda Drumm, Pat Koren, Linda Boyer, and Tom Baehr, flute quartet; Brenda Drumm and Howard Shitzer, flute and clarinet duet; and Marilyn Diek, Howard Shitzer, and Karolyin Howditch, clarinet trio.

CONTINUING their successful season, the Seaholm Debaters won the District Elimination Tournament on Feb. 14. Emerging victoriously, Seaholm defeated Pontiac Central, West Bloomfield, and coming their foes, Seaholm received a championship banner presented by the University of Michigan. The next team to face the Maples will be Grosse Pointe, at the Regional Debate Tournament begin on Monday, Feb. 26.

This year the girls have planned a special mission Mardi Gras. The event will take place on Tuesday; it will be a non-uniform day. The auditorium and lounge will be decorated to the Mardi Gras theme; inside there will be 17 different booths representing each home-room. Stands will be staffed animals and a live puppy taking goods, hot dogs, and pizza will also be sold.

Other activities include slide shows, roulette, a house of horrors and many other fund-raising games. Our goal is $850.

The freshmen students of Sister Georgetta's music theory class gave a demonstration at the assembly of Feb. 23 illustrating the various modes of music they have learned this year.

Friday is the date set for the dessert card party, sponsored by the freshmen class mothers. The card party is open to all and will be held in the Marian auditorium.

On Wednesday, Feb. 22, 1962, the seventh and eighth grade students in their spelling bees. This contest is held once a year and the top team will participate in the Southern seventh and eighth spelling bee. The seventh grade winner was Henry Dalquist and the runner-up was Julie Chamberlain. The eighth grade winner was Carol Handren and the runner-up was Barbara Kinnison.

LAST WEEK was Clothing Drive Week. In high schools and junior high schools, the main burden for Bunde Days Collections fell upon the students themselves. It was they, through their class groups, student councils or clubs, who organized the mechanics of Bunde Days. Teachers helped by offering classroom time for a discussion of economic problems in the Southern Appalachian areas in Tennessee, Kentucky and western Virginia being served by the Federation; the reason for encouraging self-help among the mountain people and offering opportunities to buy clothing of their own selection at a low price in clean stores, rather than merely accepting "hand out." SCE tries to bring to many needy people the help that is possible and to this end, mends, repairs, cleans and sews on buttons.

IF OUR PRESENT plans materialize, Barnum's principal, Mr. Vansette will be attending the National Association of Secondary School Principals meeting at Ft. Louis between the dates of Feb. 23 to Feb. 28.

CONGRATULATIONS to our Instrumental Music department for their achievements at the District Four Solo and Ensemble Festival which was held Feb. 10, 1962. Barnum students came home with division I and eight division-II ratings. Of these divisions, seven division-I and seven division-II were Solo, and two division-II were Solo, and two division-II were Ensembles.
