Berets and Feathers To Add Atmosphere

THE BEVERLYS — Mrs. Henry Herpel of Ingleswood, has joined the hard-working committee planning features for the Beverly-12 Association dance to be held March 1 at Forest Lake Country Club.

For those who would really like to get into the swing of things, it is suggested the moon might don berets and feathers could take a few feathers in their collars. There will be cocktails, a French menu and favors for all the guests. Ticket chairmen are Mrs. Leonard Buden and Mrs. George Kohlfelt.

Verona Circle, invited seven guests for luncheon and bridge to benefit the PTA card party to be held later in the year. To secure prizes for previous parties, members of the board asked for stamp books but this year they are trying small get-togethers to provide funds.

Attending Mrs. Munce's party were: Mrs. William Weber, Mrs. James Harkke, Mrs. Alva Torson, Mrs. Armand St. Amour, Mrs. Harold Pasik, Mrs. Jack Gowan and Mrs. Robert Mulhiner.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Peters of 16947 Birwood Blvd., celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary at a family dinner at Kingsley Inn Feb. 17. Included were Marilyn Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Peters.

Cars and parking spaces were at a premium Feb. 15 when Mrs. H. B. Houck of Arlington, entertained fourteen tables of birdce.

The occasion was a fund-raising party to provide supplies for Sunday school rooms in the Congregational Church of Birmingham. In addition to bridge, door and table prizes were awarded, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Frank Swartwood, of Arlington will be hostess Feb. 22 at 8:15 p. m. for the Queen of Mary's Altar Society Discussion Dinner. Michael Gaurin will talk on "The Nature of Prejudice", followed by a round-table discussion.

Mrs. R. J. Lakatos and Clara Mac Oehler were co-chairmen of the planning committee for the Riverside Dance Club's February mystery trip. Forty members met at the Beverly School parking lot and at 6 p. m. boarded a chartered bus and headed for a secret destination. It turned out to be the Hawaiian Gardens near Holly, Mich. The group plans to make this an annual event.

Eight girls were welcomed into Pier-Mara Girl Scouts 507 at investiture ceremonies Feb. 25. The troop is under the leadership of Mrs. William Shaughnessy. With other mothers, Mrs. Harold Pierce, Mrs. Jack MacEachern and Mrs. Robert Grimm, the girls spent Feb. 16 and 17 at Greenfield Village.

Last week Mrs. Hugh Munce, of herd, Mrs. James Nick and Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft.

VALLEY WOODS — Valley Woods Scouts 1015 held their troop meeting Monday night, Feb. 19, under the direction of Scout Leader Geo. Wilson and assistants Ken Kittle and Jack Balgenorth. The group is proud of Matt Balgenorth, who designed an emblem for the newly-formed North Trails, placed in the top ten at a round-table meeting of Scouts. The boys are thinking ahead to spring and planning for their sale of plant food, fertilizer and garden controls.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle, of Westlady, had Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jones, of Saginaw, as houseguests last weekend. The couples attended a dinner party and the theater.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES — Twice before, Charles Young, of Leemore Drive, has had 11-strike games, but last week realized the dream of every bowler when he made his first 300 game at the Norwest lanes. He has been the man-of-the-hour at home and was presented with a banner and loving cup by his proud family.

Mr. and Mrs. Patti, of Leemore Drive, gave a surprise birthday party Feb. 17 for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downing and two other guests with birthdays in February. Mrs. Leo Vigi and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Dallas. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson, Mrs. Hazel Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brendel, the Rot, McCarthys, the James Goldbergs and Eli Hoicks.

Ronald Jay Ribant Dies at U. of M. Medical Center

WEST BLOOMFIELD — Ronald Jay Ribant, 19, of 3435 West Long Lake Road, died in University Medical Center Feb. 21 of a self-inflicted bullet wound in his right temple.

A University of Michigan freshman, Ribant took his life several hours after he had been reprimanded for taking a few soft drinks out of a dormitory cooler without paying for them.

His roommate told police that Ribant also was despondent because of low academic grades.
