Behind The Store Fronts

With ANGUS MCKELLAR

Proud and delighted indeed are the new grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John Peddie, of Pains of Bloomfield-in-Bloomfield Plaza. . . for last Thursday they were presented with twin grand-daughters by Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) Peddie, Jr. of 679 W. Manly, Birmingham. Martha Lee weighed in at six pounds, one oz. and Maria Lynn at five pounds, eight and one-half ozs.

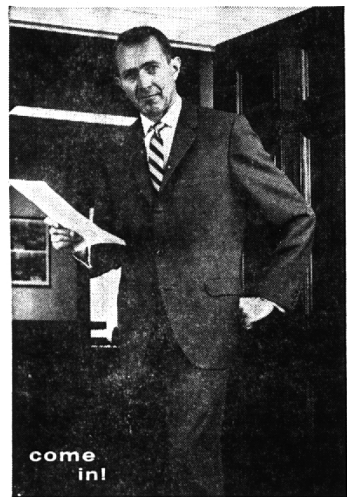

THE WHISKEY KNOWN and always genial host of Monahan's Beef Buffet is recovering in Benedict Hospital from a heart attack he suffered several weeks ago. Tom will probably be hospitalized for some time, according to his partner, Austin Murray. His room number is 445, for friends who want to send a card.

"CHUCK" MANKO, manager of The Peacock Room, 183 N. Woodward, mentioned recently that the shoe salon will mark its first year in Birmingham March 10. "We are pleased and appreciative of the store's fine reception," Chuck said.

ARLEY VAN MEER, 19080 San Jose, Lathrup Village, is the new owner of Arley's Standard Service, W. Maple and Telegraph (formerly Reeve's Standard Service). Van Meer owned and operated Arley's Home and Auto Supply on Tremen Ave. in Detroit, for over 25 years. There he handled Standard Oil Co. products, and a complete appliance line, as well as a service garage. Through the years he built up a record as the largest tire outlet for Standard in Michigan.
