

Local JA Fair Termed Success

More than 350 residents visited the local Junior Achievement industrial trade fair held recently in conjunction with National Junior Achievement Week.

Some 130 area teenagers showed what they had accomplished and learned in JA's free enterprise program during the fair which featured products made and sold by the young business men and women.

The organization reported that 12,500 people attended 16 JA trade fairs held during Junior Achievement Week and that they purchased nearly $7,500 worth of merchandise.

There are currently 8 miniature JA concerns operating in the area at the JA Business Center at 177 South Woodward.
