

Classes Scheduled For Youngsters

Group piano classes have been scheduled for the spring term at the Oakland Branch YWCA. Classes will be held on Tuesdays from 4 to 5 p.m. beginning March 27 for girls from 7 to 12 years of age. This will be a ten-week session. Mrs. Clarence H. Johnson of Royal Oak will be the teacher.

Other classes being offered for girls are ballet, baton and acrobatics. Tiny Tot Ballet is being offered for boys and girls 4 and 5 years of age. Saturday program for girls 7-12 years begins March 24. A special program has been planned for Saturday, March 17, to include an acrobatic demonstration, a nature program and talent show. Registration for these classes will be accepted that day.

Panel Discussion in the Making

Busy making arrangements for a panel meeting on trade and tariffs are members of the Birmingham League of Women Voters (from left) Mrs. William Reddig, Mrs. Lee Spanier, Mrs. MacKay Taylor and Mrs. Angus McWay. The event is scheduled to take place March 19 at the Community House and will feature a discussion of our country's trade policy by three businessmen and a representative from the field of labor.

Luncheon Is Planned Honoring Dr. Hawkes

American Association of University Women will have an opportunity to hear their national president, Dr. Anna L. Rose Hawkes, March 14 in the Birmingham Community House. Her talk, "In Keeping With Our Purpose", will be the highlight of a 12:30 p.m. luncheon. Many state officers will be in the audience, as well as members of the surrounding branches who have been invited to hear Dr. Hawkes while she is in the area. Birmingham branch members planning to attend include Mrs. Marvin R. Marsh, Michigan Division publicity chairman, and Mrs. Charles Shaw and Mrs. Richard Rinje, members of the planning committee for the regional conference to be held in Detroit in April.

DR. HAWKES has been AAUW president since 1955 and is now serving her second term. She has long served AAUW, and has played a leading role in American life. She retired from Mills College in 1956, where she had served as Dean of Students. She was registrar and Dean of Women at George Washington University. In 1933 she published "Ability in Relation To School Progress", in 1939, with W. S. Learned, "An Experiment in Responsible Learning". With her husband, the late Dr. Herbert E. Hawkes, Dean of Columbia College, she co-authored "Through the Dean's Open Door", published in 1946, and she has contributed arti-
