Pre-Lenten Glamor

The week before the March 7 start of the Lenten season was glamorous for Detroit Athletic Club members. In Miami Beach, it was DAC Night at the swank Indian Creek Country Club, which brought Florida-vacationing DAC'ers together Monday night. In Detroit, the DAC Beavers' annual dinner-dance Saturday was smart, exciting and fun.

All the week before, meticulous arrangements were made at both places to fulfill promises of festivity and fun. DAC's Manager Richard H. Campbell had flown to Florida to check with Party Chairman George A. Cavanaugh, of Birmingham and Fort Lauderdale, on details there; flew back for the Beavers' party, returned South Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Trumbull, of Bloomfield Hills (they were at Bal Harbour's Sea View Hotel two weeks before moving March 1 to the new Harbour House) entertained 12 friends at the Indian Creek party.

Included were the Semon E. Knudsen, the George W. Walkers, Mrs. John G. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Manuel, of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther R. Leader of Cranbrook Road, and the Ari M. Begoles of Covington Road, who went South together in late February, attended the party with Mrs. Leader's brothers and sisters, the A. A. Applefords and Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Tunnicliffe, all of Birmingham.

Other local-ites included the Bernard A. Goodes who have an apartment at Pompano Beach, and the Fred Kellers; the Walter Fishers, the Bernard P. Costellos, Jr., the William Frodings and the M. M. Cumminses; the Edward J. Dores, Jr., with the senior Dores and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ternes; Mrs. Carl Unruh, and the Walter G. Bihlers, of Franklin.

Continuing Gaiety

Meanwhile, back-at-the gym, the DAC's swimming Beavers and their ladies had cocktails at sidewalk cafes around the pool preceding dinner and dancing.

In a group together from this area were the Philip J. Monaghans, the Carl Fishers, Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks, the Clyde P. Craines, Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gergmoser and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Annas.

At a table for 10 were Birmingham-ites Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paulus, the J. D. Richards, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walsh and Mr. and Mrs. William Packer, Jr.

Others from here included Mr. and Mrs. Byron Terice, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Sammutt, the George Webbs, the William A. Prews, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Drew C. Haneline and the Robert B. Ryans.

Erin Go Bragh

Flaming green torches will light the way for Irish ladies and their colleens as they wheel into the driveway of Oakland Hills Country Club Saturday night, March 17.

Upon entering the foyer, merrymakers will view an Irish cottage complete with thatched roof and leprechauns, through which they'll walk into the club's lounge for cocktails preceding dinner and dancing.

Among the festive group will be Party Chairmen Mr. and Mrs. John R. Godfrey; Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Olesby; Mr. and Mrs. E. Lawrence Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Krue, the Colin Johns, the Andrew G. Brodies, Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Jehle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Frey, the Wayne M. Spades and Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Jr.

More of Same

Some sort of activity will be taking place at Bloomfield Hills Country Club that night, while Bloomfield Open Hunt has elected to have its celebration Friday evening, March 16.

At Forest Lake March 17, it'll be green tablecloths, candles, centerpieces—even green ice cubes tinkling in beverages. Jean and Harry Nederlander are executing all plans, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. John Gillespie, the D. P. O'Greens and Mr. and Mrs. Alan McPaff.

Honors and Visitors

Nice to know... That Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley, of Sodon Lake Drive, have received word that their sons-in-law, John A. Shepard, has been appointed headmaster of the Tuxedo Park School in Tuxedo Park, N. Y. He has been on the faculty of Eagle Brook School in Deerfield, Mass. . . .
