

Colorful Ceremonies To Spark Anniversary

Following a three hour "hold" Feb. 27, when Mrs. Milton E. Skutt and her Parade Committee smoothed out some jagged edges, it is reported that everything is in "no condition" and the count-down continues.

Birmingham area Girl Scouts will assemble in Shain Park at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, March 10, and whatever what the weather, will launch Girl Scouts U. S. A. into their fifth year with a revised and International Flag Ceremony beginning at 12:30 p. m.

Mayor Florence Willet will be present to officially present the March 11 to 17 as Girl Scout Week in Birmingham. And, on the evening of March 12 as the Golden Anniversary of Girl Scouts U. S. A.

MRS. PETER S. LINDSEY, chairman, will introduce Mrs. Paul F. Carey, president of Southern Oklahoma Girl Scouts, and Mrs. Milton E. Skutt, chairman of Birmingham district Girl Scouts who will speak from the reviewing stand.

As the American flag and 32 flags of other nations representing members of the Association of Girl Scouts are unfurled, Derby Junior High band, under the direction of Royer Kramer, will provide appropriate music, with Miss Mary Anderson giving the cues.

Lynn McGhee, recently presented with the Girl Scout Life Saving Award, will read the poem "Makers of the Flag."

LED BY Joan Smith, all Brownies will repeat the Brownie Promise and Girl Scouts will say the Girl Scout Promise. All will join singing "America the Beautiful."

Following the speeches and announcements, every one will sing Day Time Taps, and the band will play the World Song as the color guard retreats.

The public is invited to attend the parade and flag ceremony. Mrs. Skutt says she hopes everyone will view "Scouts in Action" exhibits in Birmingham area stores and attend the Girl Scout art exhibit at the Community House Saturday after the parade.

of the Birmingham district would like to reiterate that since Juliette Gordon Low founded the first Girl Scout troop in Savannah, Ga., March 12, 1912, the only requirement for membership remains willingness to take and try to live the Girl Scout Promise. "On my honor, I will try: To do my duty to God and my country, To help other people at all times, to obey the Girl Scout Laws."

The fifth anniversary slogan is "Honor the Past — Serve the Future."

Check Presented

Mrs. Thomas King, president of the North Woodard Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma, presented a check to Dr. James McHugh, president of the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children. The money was raised by the organization at a benefit performance of "Glorious Smiles" at St. Dunstan's Playhouse last month.

J. S. Larkins Reveal Troth Of Daughter

At a cocktail party given Sunday in her home, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Larkins, Jr., of Amberly Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith Lee, to Gerald James Levandoski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Levandoski of Dearborn.

The bride-elect is at present a student at the Pontiac Business Institute. Her fiancé will receive his Masters Degree in finance from the University of Michigan in June. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

The couple is planning a June wedding.

RESULTS

1. OF THE FREE BIRD SEED test on March 3rd: We were not crowded. However, the first six customers had read in The Eccentric. This is good news.

Early morning conversations might have been:—"Joe, you take the kids to the barber shop, and then get over to McClellan-Ball's and get the free bird seed."

"Ehbert! Beat it down to McClellan-Ball's and get the free bird seed. I'll keep your breakfast warm 'til you get back."

2. Of our TOOL & EQUIPMENT REFURBISHING offer:

Well, we picked up 17 or 18 items for sharpening and conditioning. Very little EQUIPMENT has shown up and this is bad because you will need your FERTILIZER SPREADER and HOSE sooner than you realize.

Some people have already applied the spring feeding for lawns—using Agricvo V.F. (10-6-1).

As soon as the snow melts it will run off (instead of soaking into the ground) because the frost is so deep. Then as the frost leaves, all evergreens should be thoroughly and frequently soaked as they will need all the water they can get.

3. Will be good if not better if seeds are started in a new material named PERLO-LOAM.

It is:—

- Horticultural Perlite.
- Hard inorganic volcanic mineral.
- Does not become soggy, does not deteriorate.
- Keeps soil loose indefinitely.
- Holds 3 to 4 times its weight in water.
- Does not absorb water, but ADSORBS it—collects it on its surface and thus more readily gives it up to growing plants.
- Sterile, neutral, and light weight.
- White.
- Capable of equalizing over-watering and under-watering.
- Used alone, or with soil.
- Costs 90c for 1/2 bushel.

4. Of using the best in foods, medicants, toys, and equipment show up in the health, friskiness, singing, behavior and cooperation of your pets.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — The March 13 meeting of the Bloomfield Farms WNFCA has been cancelled. March 16 has been proclaimed "husbands' night" and will be observed at Forest Lake Country Club beginning at 6 p.m. Everyone is looking forward to having the "Sweet Sixties" who are members of the women's branch of SBEBSA and will entertain the members and their husbands with some real bar-b-q and quartette singing.

Working on the committee for the evening will be Mrs. George Wirth, Mrs. James Steele and Mrs. Walter Coleman.

The Greater Westchester Association bears announces that the roster of the 31 club captains is now complete and ready to operate.

A meeting is slated tonight at 8 at the Bloomfield Township Hall.

WESTCHESTER — The home of Mrs. Richard Kellogg of Berkshire Drive was the setting on Feb. 28 for a "fun-type fashion show" with some of the ladies modeling the new spring creations.

After the entertainment, refreshments were served to 16 guests. Among those present were Mrs. Clarence Kellogg, Mrs. Melvin Metz, Mrs. Clarence Allingham and Mrs. Robert Hatcher.

LARRY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allingham of Berkshire Drive is one of the few people who seems quite happy with the cold weather.

WESTCHESTER — Mrs. H. A. Reek of Lahser Road and Mrs. Ricketts of the home of Bryn Mawr Drive had the "most wonderful and unusual baby shower," according to the guest of honor Mrs. Milton Ricketts.

Mrs. Ricketts' first thrill was a lovely orchid corsage presented to her by Mrs. Reek's husband Hal. A promised mystery guest kept her in suspense all evening. Finally after many guesses the suspense was ended when she guessed Mrs. George LaFanta from Dearborn.

Cocktails and a buffet after the shower was enjoyed by Mesdames
