

Gilbert Lake Family Vacations in Florida

GILBERT LAKE — Mrs. Earl Maxwell and her two children, Ann, 7, and Douglas, 6, returned recently to their Lahser Road home after spending 11 days at Redington Beach on the west coast of Florida.

While vacationing, they visited Mrs. Maxwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Munroe of Pleasant Ridge who are spending the winter in Florida.

FRANKLIN LONG LAKE ROAD — Mrs. Tucker daughter of the Tom Tuckers of Derby Road, celebrated her eighth birthday last Saturday by inviting several of her friends from the neighborhood and school to join her for a sleigh ride and dinner. The children gathered at the Tucker home about 4 p.m. and drove to Roy's Ranch for the sleigh ride.

After the sleighride, Susan Todd, Jean Jacobson, Karen Rosen, Iris Conner, Kath, Allen, Kristen Marshall, Bill Bordinet, and Cathy, Ted and Joan Tucker returned and the Tucker home to sit camp fire and eat pizza, baked beans, chips and relishes and roast marshmallows.

KNOB HILL — It was quite a surprise to the Heussner family of Van Ness Court when Mrs. Heussner took the hospital recently to have a new baby.

She went expecting to have No. 5 and instead had No. 3, and 6, much to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Heussner, the other four Heussner children and the doctor. The twin boys arrived Feb. 19, and weighed eight pounds and his brother, Steven J., weighed six pounds five ounces.

Anxiously awaiting their arrival home were the other Heussner children, Candace, 15; Michelle, 12; Robert, 9; and Marilee, 4.

FOXGROVE — Mrs. D. F. Lau is having a coffee this morning for the nominating committee of the Conant School PTO board.

LONE PINE HILLS — Mrs. Joseph Walker has returned to her home in Lansing after spending 10 days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. MacManus Jr. in their new home on Craigin Drive.

Mrs. Walker brought her three children with her. They are Christine Lee, Joe Jr. and Lisa, and they helped to live up Grandma and Grandpa's new home for a week. Joseph Walker Sr. joined his family and his in-laws for the weekend.

LONE PINE HILLS — Mr. and Mrs. Richard McDonald of 1833 Craigin Drive are the proud parents of a new daughter, Mary Kay. She was born on Feb. 13 and weighed six pounds and nine ounces. Mary Kay joins the other members of the McDonald household who are Richard, Christine, Gary and Karen.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — Cub Scouts of Pack 1022 held their Blue and Gold Banquet at Conant School recently. The theme for the month of February was "Residents on Parade" and from this was derived the colors for the decorations.

The tables were decorated in red, white and blue with profiles of Uncle Sam, George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy. Handling the arrangements for the banquet, attended by the cubs and their parents, were Mrs. Fred Schmale and Mrs. Ed Brown. Paul Nelson, district commissioner, presented the Pack Charter to representatives of Conant School PTO, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sanford.

Awards were given to advancing scouts by Cub Master Richard Southern and two new boys, John Rowell and Dean Crampton were inducted into the pack.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — A Court of Honor and Investiture ceremony was held recently at Conant School by Boy Scouts of Pack
