Pilot Rents Plane, Zips Across Florida Skies

Warm temperatures lured the Richard Jamisons of Satterlee Drive to Pompano Beach, Fla., for a two-week vacation recently. Joining them at the Ebbtide Motel are relatives and friends from Chicago, the Emerson Housers and the Arthur Raplogies.

Highlighting the vacation were flights along the Florida coastline. Miami Beach and Key Biscayne, in a rented plane with Jamison as pilot.

Mr. Jamison donned a parachute and goggles, and climbed into the open cockpit of a Stearman for an "old-fashioned plane ride". Once again Jamison manned the controls.

Other Satterlee Drive residents enjoying sun, surf and sand at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for two weeks were Dr. and Mrs. R. Lee Irving and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nemyer. They motored to Florida, to visit Cyprus Gardens and other points of interest along the way.

Emerald Beach in Nassau was their playground for five days as they toured the picturesque island. On their entertainment list was the Cat & Fiddle, to hear Count Basie and the Gombay Club for the performances of the limbo and gombay dancers.

Before their return home they dined in Pompano Beach with the Richard Jamisons.

The Robert Lowrys of Ashover Road are home again with deep sun tans after a two-week holiday in Florida. The Safari Beach Hotel in North Miami was their home away from home as they sunned, swam, toured famous night spots and even won the daily double at Hialeah. Joining the Lowrys there for the second year were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Petix of Birmingham and other Michigan couples. On their return flight, weather conditions forced their plane back to Savannah, Ga. for the night.

In addition to Governor Swainson, most of the members of the state administrative board and the supreme court will be in attendance, reports dinner chairman George J. Fulkerson. Senator Patrick V. McNamara plans to be present, Fulkerson said.

SENATOR HART will report to the group on progress of his senate investigation of deceptive packaging, the Sleeping Bear national park proposal and other senate activities.

The dinner will set the stage for the midway "wrap-up" of Oakland County's state-wide Democratic party membership drive ending March 31.

More than 300 state membership books already have been circulated throughout the county with more to come, according to Robert Goren, of Oak Park, and Mrs. John McVay, 1678 Yosemite, Birmingham, co-chairmen.

MRS. McVay pointed out that members of the state Democratic party receive monthly issues of "The Michigan Democrat", official publication of the party.
