Past President's Dinner Served Up Tonight

FRANKLIN — Many will be coming tonight to the special past-president's of the Franklin Community Association dinner—to see how many of the 20-some "Pasties" will make a sentimental journey for the occasion. They will be asked to present a brief "highlight" of their tenure in office. The evening, starting at 7 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church will be nicely nostalgic with speakers like village historian, Bert Wood; developer, G. W. Smith and a special concert by the Franklin Band. It will also introduce a new aspect of the Association's development, the inclusion of women at business meetings and dinner affairs. The change of policy is indicative of the group's desire to make the association more substantially a family affair, with a true new community hall the prime objective.

The Franklin School PTA is offering a home-spun thriller "Who Done It," written by Mrs. Harlow Bates, Mrs. Norman Naimark with collaboration from PTA prez, Ted Ketter at the meeting Monday 8:08 p.m. Several members of the Franklin Village Players will enact the roles, showing what examples we set for our children. A soul-searching discussion is bound to follow. There will also be an election of new officers.

The Couples Club is all revved up for their Roarin' Twenties party Friday night at the Franklin Community Church. All sorts of pianing has come into this occasion which will be filled with music and personalities of the era. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey have arranged for typical atmosphere and talent.

Bob Bihler, Jon Cauley, Wally Booth and Bruce Coburn have given a good account of themselves this season with the Inter-city Hockey series between Birmingham, Royal Oak, Oak Park and Ferndale. Their team took 11.

The William Kahns of 14 Mile

Road have returned from seven weeks of skiing and touring Europe. The Franklin WNFGA will meet Monday to celebrate their birthday month with an "Over Our Shoulder" program. A review of the past years will be given by past-presidents as honor guests. The noon luncheon will be served by Mrs. Thomas Dudson's committee of hostesses, Mrs. Jack Ambrose, Mrs. Ernest Housington, Mrs. P. Wright and Mrs. John Harnes. Mrs. J. P. O'Brien will decorate the table-of-the-month.

ESTHER CIRCLE will also meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Skeels, 32750 Susanne, to plan a Latin American luncheon. Mrs. Curtis Miller is co-hostess.

MARY-MARTHA, Rebecca and Ruth Circles meet Tuesday at noon in the Franklin Community Church for a combined luncheon. The groups will then attend the Franklin Forum to hear Mrs. Philip Gentile speak on the United Nations. Hostesses Mrs. W. E. Lee, Mrs. D. Cohagen and Mrs. F. W. Baynton will serve salad and coffee.
