

Pilgrim Congregational Observes Anniversary

Pilgrim Congregational Church of Birmingham observed the first anniversary of its covenant signing on March 4 with a special service which included its first Sacrament of Baptism for two children. Induction into church membership for 10 persons also was a part of the special service.

Wendy Sue Gillette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Gillette, and Michael William Peterback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith R. Peterback, received baptism from the Rev. Howard Bull.

MR. BULL, his wife Doris and son Donald were among the new members inducted into the church. Mr. Bull was called as the church's pastor from Saranac, on Jan. 7.

The significance of a covenant in Congregationalism is that it is the pact made by founding members which brings their individual church into formal existence. New members enter into the church's fellowship by accepting this Covenant. Pilgrim's Covenant was copied from that used to establish the Salem Colony church more than 300 years ago. Mr. Bull's sermon topic was "Give Me Your Hand."

THE CHURCH HOLDS its worship services and church school in the Community House, 380 S. State, Birmingham, at 11 a.m. Sundays.

Beginning last Saturday and continuing every Saturday through April 14, the men of Pilgrim Church are holding Lenten breakfast devotional services on Jan. 7.

Uncle John's Panckake House, 1360 S. Woodward, Birmingham, at 7:30 a.m.

The serets is open to the public.

Fellowship Plans Series For Lent

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham announces their Lenten series, a program of five topics dealing with the Lenten season.

These meetings will be held on Sunday evenings at 7:00 p.m. on March 18, Dr. Don Clayton, pastor of the Detroit Council of Church will discuss "The Christian and his Faith."

On March 25, "The Christian and his Faith" will be the subject of a special music and informal singing will be under the direction of the choir director, Mrs. James Gray.

THE SERIES' purpose is to provide the church youth and their guests an opportunity to discuss many questions relevant to their lives.

Industrial Mission To Be Discussed At St. Stephen's

The Rev. Scott I. Paradise, associate director of the Detroit Industrial Mission, will be the second speaker in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in its Lenten series, "Christian Unity and the Church's Mission to the World."

Paradise is bishop's chaplain for industrial life and work for the Episcopal diocese of Michigan.

THE DETROIT Industrial Mission, an interdenominational Christian venture in which clergy and interested laymen reach into the everyday world of shop and office where professional chambers are seldom found to better men and women.

Paradise is holding this series of programs for all Episcopalians, Methodists, Presbyterians and members of the United Church of Christ—the four denominations entering into merger discussion.

A pot-luck supper at 6:30 will precede the lecture. Persons interested in attending may make reservations by calling the office or calling the hostess in advance.

NO advance notice is necessary for attendance at the lecture and discussion.

MEMBERS will hear reports from directors on their industrial church camps. Addressing the group will be Naomi Long, director of Camp Holiday, Ontario, and field consultant for the Girls' Friendly Society in the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

A slide talk will be presented on the subject "The Annunciation as Pictures by Artists during Eight Centuries."

St. Paul Methodist Announces Lenten 'Inspiration' Series

St. Paul Methodist Church, 165 E. Square Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills, will begin its annual Lenten "Hours of Inspiration" series on Monday.

The following speakers will be scheduled for the series: The Rev. Harold Johnson, associate minister, Central Methodist, on Monday, March 19, at 7:30 p.m.

On March 26, Dr. Don Clayton, pastor of the Detroit Council of Church will discuss "The Christian and his Faith."

On March 26, "The Christian and his Faith" will be the subject of a special music and informal singing will be under the direction of the choir director, Mrs. James Gray.

Luncheons Planned To Follow Services In Lenten Season

The second of a series of three noon-day Lenten services will be held at 12:10 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, Dr. Harris will preach on the topic "Where is Your Faith?"

Following the service which will be completed at 12:35, a luncheon will be held in the social hall. A charge will be made.

Sponsors of this service are members and families of the church, church councils and the zone leaders.

St. James Begins Confirmation Classes

Confirmation classes are beginning at St. James Episcopal Church. Classes for adults, conducted by the Rev. Kenneth H. Gass, will begin at 8 p.m. Sunday in the parish lounge.

These classes are open to all adults who are interested in the Episcopal Church or any who wish a refresher course.

Classes for young people began Saturday and meet each Saturday at 10 a.m. in room 22 under the direction of the Rev. W. Eugene Snoxell. Anyone 12 years or older may attend.

Township Church Plans Square Dance

A western square dance will be held March 31 at the Church of Our Saviour at 8 p.m. Guests will bring light snack and coffee and a pot-luck supper at 6:30 will precede the lecture.

Psychodrama Set for Meeting Of Churchwomen

Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook will meet Tuesday morning at 10:45, following Holy Communion at 10 a.m.

Post-Service Hospital volunteers Mrs. Dan Coffin, Mrs. Jack McCune and Mrs. Richard W. Michigan will present an impromptu act-out of inter-personal difficulties encountered among patients and their volunteer work at the hospital.

A business meeting will follow luncheon.

MEMBERS will hear reports from directors on their industrial church camps. Addressing the group will be Naomi Long, director of Camp Holiday, Ontario, and field consultant for the Girls' Friendly Society in the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

A slide talk will be presented on the subject "The Annunciation as Pictures by Artists during Eight Centuries."

Down by the Station

All set for their recent ride on a "choo-choo" four-year-old Karen Climie and her pre-school classmates from the First Presbyterian Nursery School investigate the ticket window at Birmingham's Grand Trunk commuter station.

Nursery director Mrs. J. E. Cronander of Birmingham agrees with her charges that a train ride is fun. The children meet at the church on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings for music, stories, games and experience in all art media—and frequent visits to such delightful spots as a local pastry shop or fire station.

Luncheon-Meeting Planned by Members Of Child Study Club

The Child Study Club will hold its monthly meeting-luncheon at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Vibbert, 1610 Beverly Road, Beverly Hills, included in the meeting will be the annual election of officers.

The Rev. Mr. Howard R. Loomis of the Congregational Church of Charlotte, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "Helping a Child Face The Death of a Loved One."

Ascension Lutheran Church

Nursery service will be provided at the church baby nursery. Luncheon and nursery reservations must be in by Tuesday, and may be phoned to Mrs. James Hornaday at 161 Woodward Road, Birmingham.

Church News Deadline

Deadline for church news is 5 p.m. Thursday the week BEFORE publication.

Inside New Church

The Rev. William H. Downey (left), and Northbrook Presbyterian Church building chairman Robert E. Wunderlich stand in front of the communion table in the interior of the new church building. Behind them is the back wall of the chancel with its multi-colored glass bricks, giving the effect of stained glass. The first service in the new church was held Feb. 25. This initial unit of the church includes a combination sanctuary and fellowship hall, pastor's study, classrooms, church office and kitchen. The congregation formerly met at Northbrook Elementary School.

Beverly WSCS To Hear Talk By Principal

"Time For A Change" will be C. E. Lund's topic when he speaks to the Beverly Hills Women's Society of Christian Service next Wednesday. The group will meet in the home of Mrs. Thomas Poole, 19551 Wetherby for dessert at 7:30.

Lund is principal at Wylie Groves High School. His talk will deal with alcohol and Christian responsibility as it affects the teenage community.

Devotions will be given by Mrs. Richard Mangrum, 16225 Amherst, on "Setting Our Values." Mrs. John LeRoy, 31475 Jadedwood, on "The Christian's Role in the World of Today." Mrs. D. G. Trout, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Marshall, Michigan, will speak.

Reservations can be made by calling the church office and must be made one week in advance.

Franklin Church Schedules First Of Lenten Series

On Sunday evening, beginning at 6:30 p.m., the Franklin Community Church will present the first in its series of Lenten family nights.

On this evening the commission on missions will present Mrs. Meri Meba Wittbrock, wife of the Rev. Donald Wittbrock, associate minister of First Methodist Church, Pontiac. Mrs. Wittbrock's father was a minister in South America. She brings slides describing missionary work from three South American countries, Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay.

The dinner which begins at 5:30 p.m. is a cooperative dinner. Guests are invited to bring a vegetable and silverware and milk for the children. Coffee will be provided. Reservations for the series will be made by calling the church office at 8:30 p.m.

Documentary Film To Be Featured At Men's Meeting

The Men's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Birmingham will have its monthly meeting Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the church.

The program this month will feature the "Inevitable Day," a documentary film describing some of the aspects of the operation of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan. In addition, Robert Pierce, associate pastor of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will be present to tell of the operations of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan and to answer questions.
