

Mrs. Steven Bauer Is Nominated For College Post

Mrs. E. Steven Bauer of Birmingham is a nominee for the post of ninth director of the Smith College Alumnae Association. Alumnae all over the country will take part in the balloting, and election results will be announced at Commencement in June.

Mrs. Bauer has been a member of the executive committee of the Birmingham Smith Club since it was founded in 1964 and also served as publicity chairman for the Area Development Program. A 1950 graduate of Smith, in 1958 she originated and is national chairman of the Esther Cloutman Durn Fund Drive for "recognition of scholarship and the art of teaching at Smith."

Mrs. Bauer is a member of the history department of Kingswood School. She has been active in the women's division of the Detroit Opera Association and last year was a member of the Speaker's Bureau for the Metropolitan Opera season.

MRS. T. X. McMASTER

McMaster-Nurre Vows Solemnized In Ohio Church

Maribou Nurre, daughter of Joseph H. Nurre, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the late Mrs. Nurre, became the bride of Thomas X. McMaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMaster of Bellville Trail, Birmingham, on Saturday, March 3, in St. Clement Church, St. Bernard, Ohio.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the University Club.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a ball-length gown of delustrated satin made with a scooped neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves coming to the traditional point.

Marjorie Gagnon, of Birmingham, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a short gown of royal blue satin with scooped neckline and bell-shaped skirt.

Best man was William McMaster, brother of the groom. Robert Kurtz and Ron Carson served as ushers. All are from Birmingham.

The bride is a graduate of Mercy College, Detroit. The groom received his bachelor's degree from the Detroit Institute of Technology. Following a short honeymoon, the couple will reside in Detroit.

New Member

Oakland Branch WNEGA met Monday in the home of Mrs. Stanley Webster, 1845 Fenbroke, Birmingham, with Mrs. Andy Schruhl as assistant hostess. Mrs. Colin B. Bauman, of Royal Oak, was welcomed into the group as a new member.

Bits of Trivia

Did you know...? That Clyde McCoy will be at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club for the dinner dance Saturday night (hosts for the St. Pat's celebration to include Bob and Tootie VanderKloot, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Smith, the Howard Keatings, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Jones and the Worth Kramers).

That members of TAE Association, Inc., have just turned over $500 to the Baptist Children's Home (their major charitable project), representing proceeds from the annual luncheon and fashion show given at Oakland Hills Country Club in February...

THAT JANIE HART (once a sailor, always a sailor!) is taking off from Washington, D. C., towards the end of Lent, bent on a 10-day cruise with four other women. They've chartered a sailing vessel with a woman captain (yet) and are off to sail the oceans blue 'round the Windward Islands. Senator Husband Philip A. Hart regaled us on his recent political trip here...

That former localite Walter Jeffrey was in town Sunday for the christening of granddaughter Nancy Elizabeth Pendracki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Pendracki (Judy Jeffrey), of Cheltenham Drive. Having recently been transferred to Dayton, Ohio, it was an easy drive to Birmingham for Jeff. Maternal grand-mama, however, wired congratulations, for she's out on the West Coast selling a house and packing.
