North Adams Couple Back from Puerto Rico

NORTH ADAMS—The Robert Lossings of Satterlee Drive are back home from a jet trip to Puerto Rico for a week. During their stay, they golfed, swam and sunned at the picturesque Dorado Beach on the island.

North Miami Beach, Fla., was the vacation playground of the Fred Cruses of Chasing Way Drive and friends, the Don Cartwrights of North Baltimore, Mich., for a week.

They traveled by jet giving them more time to catch the Nat King Cole performance at the Eden Roc, dance at the Fountainbliss and visit such restaurants as Mal Kai and Patricia Murphy's.

On their return home they had William Kaschulak of Stafford Springs, Conn., as their houseguest for a few days.

The John MacLachlans of Top View Court entertained at a family dinner party on Sunday evening.

The dinner was for the Thomas MacLachlan family of Livonia who are moving to Grand Rapids soon. Other family members attending were the William MacLachlans of Oak Park.

The MacLachlans also entertained friends of their "supper club" an evening last week. The picnic group have been gathering monthly for more than a year and include the Paul Dismers, the Gordon Currys, the Carl Gummaches, the Fred Langs, all of Hickory Heights subdivision.

After the contest excitement was over the John Leidgens and friends, the Leonard Faddis of Rochester, spent an evening of dinner and dancing at Northwest Inn.

The occasion was the 33rd wedding anniversary for the Leidgens.

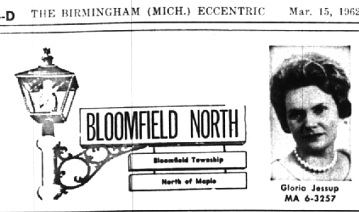

The William Baldwin of W. Orchard Hill Drive announced the Feb. 11 birth of a son, Robert Mayhew. The Baldwin's other children are Scott, 8; Beth, 5; Brad, 3; and Chuck, 2.

Moore to Entertain At Luau Saturday

LONE PINE HEIGHTS—Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Moore returned recently from a three-week holiday in Hawaii. Before their departure from their Keller Lane home, the Moores were given a bon voyage party by the Robert Magnusons of Whispering Pine Lane. The Magnusons invited 18 friends and neighbors for an evening of cards and also a chance to say farewell to the Moores.

Since their return, Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been preparing for their luau on March 17. The 40 guests invited have been asked to dress in native costume and two prizes will be awarded for the most authentic dress, one for the women and one for the men.

Fish net will help form a background for the flowers being flown from the islands. Delicacies will be wrapped in tea leaves and served in bowls made of bamboo. In addition to the flowers being flown in for the occasion will be fresh pineapple to add one more realistic touch.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore will share some of their experiences of their recent trip with the guests by showing their color slides.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—The Bloomfield Village WNPGA held its second annual telephone bridge yesterday at various members homes.

The Bloomfield Village branch, only two years old, has chosen this means of raising money for the benefit of the Bloomfield Village School. All proceeds will be used to improve the shrubbery around the school.

Ladies from the Birmingham and Bloomfield area played for 30 prizes, some of which were

Former Localite Repeats Vows To Illinois Girl

Kathryn Boyd Erickson, of Murphysboro, Ill., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence V. Erickson, of Detroit, spoke her marriage vows March 10 to Arthur Leroy Lane, Jr., of Carbondale, Ill. son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lane, of Bedford Road, Beverly Hills.

The ceremony took place in Detroit at the Epiphany Lutheran Church, with a reception following at the Detroit Golf Club.

The bride wore a lather-length gown of white tulle fastened with a white necktie, three-quarter sleeves and an appliqued design of tiny pearls on the tight bodice. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a butterfly bow headpiece, and she carried a cascade of white roses.

HONOR ATTENDANT Louise Saffo, of Allen Park, and bridesmaid Mrs. Edward Bliss were dressed alike in orchid ball-length frocks. They were matching headpieces and carried bouquets of gazanias ornamented with purple ribbons.

Best man was Harry M. Myron, of Fort Huron, and seating the guests were Paul C. Grant, Jr., of East Stroudsburg, Pa., formerly of Birmingham, and William C. Lacey, of Bloomfield Terrace.

Following a trip through the Smoky Mountains, the couple will be at home in Murphysboro.

If you are buying, selling, renting or swapping, the Birmingham Eccentric Classified Ads will do an outstanding job for you.
