

55 Qualify to Join Bloomfield 4-H Club

WEST BLOOMFIELD — The Bloomfield 4-H Club celebrated National 4-H Club week by receiving 55 new members at the March 10 meeting. All 55 youngsters qualified for membership by attending meetings and completing projects for exhibit on Achievement Day March 31 at the Pontiac Northern High School.

Members competed in a "Share the Fun Contest" March 5 at Millford. A Mardi Gras dance group placed first in the large group acts. Cynthia Betts, Bridget Puhl, Marilyn Hillier, Cheryl Mulholland and Claudia Wise composed this act. Carol and Sue LaFehr and Pat and Kathy Gorf placed second in the small group acts.

Many adult leaders attended the Oakland County Leaders Banquet on March 7. Linda Jacobson, Barbara Hillier, Ann Patterson, Rickiann Hoxie and Denny Robertson assisted with the reception.

New officers for the junior group have been elected. Marilyn Hillier will be president; Susie Alik, vice president; Ruth Ludden, secretary and Martin Scott, treasurer.

New officers for the senior group will be Kris Simonson, president; Rickiann Hoxie, vice president; Barbara Hillier, secretary and Douglas Norland, treasurer.

BRAES—Some 22 people attended a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Brooks on Westmore Drive to listen to Albert Schumm, principal of Walnut Lake School.

Cathy Donley on Braegoor Trail. A unanimous ballot elected Neale Schermerhorn as the new president; Dick Bergman, vice president. They also elected to retain Dick Loudon as treasurer and Cathy Donley as secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mulford Jr. welcomed the newest resident in Brass No. 3 subdivision, Baby Burton Naylor arrived March 3 and has settled comfortably at home with the Mulfords and brother, John D. Mulford, III.

BLOOMFIELD HIGHLANDS — The Harry Houcks are back home on Middleton Court after two weeks in Jamaica.

The Houcks with Dr. and Mrs. Fred Jeffers of Birmingham and Mrs. and Mrs. Harvey Hofffeld of Grosse Pointe rented a beach house on the ocean at Echo Rise and filled their days with sunning, skin diving and tennis.

Before returning home, they entertained their Jamaican friends at a cocktail party — American style.

WALNUT LAKE — The Walnut Lake School PTA meeting at 8 p.m. Monday will have the United Nations in evidence.

Four foreign exchange students will be visiting during the meeting. Patricia Gordon, American Field Service representative has just returned from Berlin where she spent one semester in a Berlin School. Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon and is a student at Seaborn High School.

Hans Kupper is from Switzerland and goes to Groves High; his adopted parents here are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rich.

Two German boys, Christoph Hoffman and Roland Brisenick are sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

Christoph is from Dortmund and is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morse. Roland is from Berlin; his American parents are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brokaw. He attends Seaborn.

Presiding the meeting Monday, four homes will be opened to the students.

Patricia will be a guest in the Frank Vacavai home; Chris will be entertained by the Bob Brinkmans. Rot will visit with the Donald Tapp family and Hans will join the Mack Pittard family for dinner.

BRAES—A fire in their home recently was made "a bit lighter" by the Curtis Whittlessey of Maple Road when friends gathered for a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Teague, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Don Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schoener, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koszta, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wray, the Charles Shulls, the Dick Persols, the Otto Winkelmans and the Dean Pescocks.
