If planning a new wall for your living room, why not inquire about western red cedar channel style which is the same as a reverse board and batten. Rough textured, the wall has a richness that is distinctive.

Smith Elected By Architects

Linn Smith, of Birmingham, has been elected a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects. Of the 34 elected Smith was the only Michigan man so honored. He was elected for design and service to the Institute.

At the AIA Convention, May 7-11, Smith's three-year term as Regional Director of the Institute will expire.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, College of Architecture and Design, he practiced with Maynard Lyndon FAIA with Eberle M. Smith, FAIA; as Smith, Tarapata & MacMahon, and since 1952 as Linn Smith Associates, Inc. As chairman of many committees of the architectural organization, he has rendered outstanding service to the profession, and has received many awards for his designs.

BRONSON BRANT

Veteran Employee Retires as Edison Engineer

Bronson Brant, 1010 Henrietta, Birmingham, retires April 1 as an underground planning engineer for Detroit Edison's general engineering department after 40 years of service with the company.

Brant, a native of Coloma, Michigan, joined Edison as a test engineer in 1922, soon after earning an electrical engineering degree at the University of Michigan.

He rose through a number of engineering assignments and since 1950 he has been responsible for planning underground transmission and distribution facilities.

He is a Registered Professional Engineer and a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

He also is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham where he has served as an Elder for several years.

Brant and his wife, Louise, have a son, Raymond F. Brant, who is now serving with the United States Air Force.

Donald Miller Honored by Radio-TV Women

Donald L. Miller, radio-TV production supervisor for Campbell-Ewald, was honored last week when named one of "Five to Watch" by the Detroit chapter of the American Women in Radio and Television.

The honor was conferred by Chapter President Leontine Keane, director, radio-TV publicity at Wayne State University, at the chapter's second annual award dinner.

Miller, 2354 Yorkshire, Birmingham, entered advertising as a trainee with Grant Advertising in his native Chicago. He moved to that agency's Detroit office in 1933, where he created, wrote and directed TV commercials.

He joined Campbell-Ewald as an assistant supervisor of production in 1955 and became head of the agency's radio-TV production 2 1/2 years ago. He operates with a staff of 15 producers, eight in Detroit, three in New York and four in Hollywood.

Meeting to Feature Cranbrook Botanist

Dr. Warren P. Stoutamire, associate botanist at Cranbrook Institute of Science, will read two papers to the Botanical Section of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters at its 60th annual meeting in Ann Arbor March 22 through 24.

On March 23 he will deliver a treatise on "Problems Involved in the Germination of Terrestrial Orchid Seed" and on March 24, "Anatomical Differentiation in Galliardia Species."

Between 1940 and 1960 combined steam-making capacity of the three largest U. S. companies increased 65 per cent, compared with 106 per cent for the rest of the steel industry.

The world's largest medical laboratory devoted exclusively to hearing and deafness research is being built at The University of Michigan.

Why a Complete Research Department . . .

It seems that a research department is almost always thought of in connection with a large corporation. You hear of the many companies that are constantly checking the pulse of dealers and consumers and are searching for better things, so that you may have a better life in the years to come.

Through our New York correspondent, Baker, Weeks and Company we receive specialized research services from a staff of experts covering all investment categories. Here at Manley, Bennett we also have a well staffed Research Department, that analyzes and evaluates the many stocks and the companies behind them. By having these departments we are better able to serve you in planning your investment portfolio to meet your needs for a better investment future. Remember our Research Departments are always ready to serve you, naturally without obligation.
