West Coast Lures Birmingham Pair On Spring Jaunt

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Buchanan, of Colonial Court, Birmingham, are leaving this Thursday for a month of visiting on the West Coast, just before the departure. Mrs. Buchanan entertained members of Delta Chapter Sigma Alpha Sorority, at a dinner party at the Detroit Athletic Club Tuesday, March 20.

The dinner honored Mesdames Harry A. Huchtmantel, John E. Hiple and Albert Geerhart, all of Southfield, new members of the chapter, who were initiated that afternoon, and who now will take part in the sorority's aid to The Institute of Logopedics at Wichita, Kans., their national project.

Besides the honorees, guests at the dinner were Mesdames Edwin C. Roesser, Raymond Charvin, Robert Stainton, Charles Shannon, Roy Speers, Joseph Garbarino, Eugene Chapp and John Corsiglia. In California, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan will visit their son and daughter-in-law, the James Buchanans (he's a tree in colorful movie writer), and small granddaughter, Alexa, in Encino, and the senior Mrs. Buchanan's sister, Mrs. Benjamin Strong, in North Hollywood. Wind-up will be short stay in their beloved San Francisco and visits to favorite places there.

Pretty Kitchen Mechanics on Tap

When Judge Donald E. Adams speaks at 7:30 p.m. on "The Aims of Oakland County Juvenile Court", Bloomfield Country Day students will be on the business end of serving dinner to guests attending the lecture in the school dining room. Altrusa Club is sponsoring the evening, which is open to the public.

Birmingham-ites Contribute News About People You Know

Mrs. L. Irving Woolson, of 715 Glenayr Road, left in February on a three months' Mediterranean cruise, dutifully keeping local stay-at-homes up to date via colorful post-cards.

Could have saved a stamp, however, as far as the Henry G. Queen family is concerned, for son John, a junior at Seaboard, is on a short-wave bug and a couple Sunday nights ago picked up Radio Moscow announcing that the liner Olympia (Mrs. Woolson's ship) had just landed in Odessa with several hundred American tourists aboard.

The announcer went on to say that tourists were visiting museums and picture galleries, going to health resorts and attending opera and the ballet.

So who needs post cards? Just those of us who don't have short wave sets!

vivacious and attractive as they come, left her Lake Park Drive home March 1 to spend seven weeks at the Monterey House in Pompano Beach, Fla. En route down, she stopped at Ormond Beach to visit former newspaperman and Birmingham-die Phil Desaubien who, with brown-eyed hair, is making his permanent home there.

Judy Lawrence, a student at nearby Webber College, will visit her mother over Easter vacation.

BIRMINGHAM CITY MANAGER and Mrs. L. R. Gars, of Wimbledon Drive, will be back next week following an 18-day cruise to the East Indies aboard the M/S Stella Polaris.

Fenn Hall students home this week on spring vacation include Kathleen Fisher of Darlington Road, Lynn E. Mellem of Orchard Bend, and Susan Lee Pardee of N. Glenayr Road.

Former Birmingham-ites, Mr. and Mrs. John Jarno, now of Sun City, Ariz., concluded a trip to Mexico Monday with a group in self-contained trailers. Trailers left Brownsville, Tex., Jan. 30 and leisurely toured through Monterrey, Queretaro, Mexico City, Acapulco, Cuernavaca, Taxco, Toluca, Morelia, Guadalajara, San Blas, Mazatlan and Guaymas.

Thomas J. Ryan, Radioman 2nd Class, U. S. Navy, arrived home March 8 from Argentina to spend 13 days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, of Fairway Drive.

While he was here, the family received word that Brother Robert, Gunnery Mate Technician, has been promoted to Seaman. He's stationed aboard the U.S.S. Bonner Homme Richard, aircraft carrier, San Diego, Calif.

Junior Guild Plans Fund-Raising Party
