

250 Scouts Gather At Conant School

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—Some 250 girls, Brownies and Girl Scouts, met at Conant School March 12 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of girl scouting in the United States.

The first Girl Scout troop was organized by Juliet Low on this date in 1912. "Dimes for Daisies" was the theme this year. The "daisy" was the nickname given to Juliet Low and the dimes were contributions from Girl Scouts, Brownies and their leaders which were donated to further scouting in other countries.

The committee which made this gathering possible included the neighborhood chairman and her team, Brownie and Girl Scout leaders and the Brownie and Girl Scout Councils. The girls enjoyed candy, milk and a "sing-along."

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—A St. Patrick's Day Dance was held recently in the all-purpose room for the eighth and ninth grades at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School.

A group of four called the Emperials supplied the music for the dance, instead of the usual records. Two members of the group—Greg Pike and Jamie Miller—are students at the junior high.

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—The Bloomfield Heights WNFPA held its February meeting at the home of Mrs. R. A. Winter on Pine Tree Trail.

This luncheon meeting was the members' once a year bridge-quiz. Committee members were Mesdames F. W. Elber, Ralph Gibson, H. J. Hood, G. Switzer, R. A. Laster and Robert Angove.

The ladies who attended the WNFPA council meeting at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club recently were Mrs. F. L. Elber, district reservations chairman; Mrs. G. J. Engelhard, president of the Bloomfield Heights WNFPA; and Mrs. Ralph Gibson and Mrs. Oliver Strong.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—William Gilgarty of Hipp Cross Road escorted his daughters Pam and Mary Ellen and their guests, Mrs. Armstrong and Jerry Cousens to Otsego last weekend for skiing.

LOVE VINE VILLAGE—Eight ladies gathered at the William Hick ranch home on Ranch Lane for luncheon and bridge Monday when Mrs. Carriek entertained her bridge club.

Those who enjoyed a variety of salads and tried for high scores were Mrs. Harold Kahlfleisch, Mrs. Alan F. Kough, Mrs. James Cousens, Mrs. William Roney, Mrs. Herb Brown, Mrs. Thomas Spiegel and Mrs. Robert Burton.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR MI 6-1358

Ed Wilson is in New York on a shopping spree this week and expect to come home with spring and summer wardrobe.

Mrs. John Longley honored her husband with a birthday party for his last week. Guests included a number of his sailing buddies from Grosse Pointe, Ted Buttrick, Tom Green and Edward Wunsch among them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Russell of Bloomfield Hills are in Hobo Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Booth and their sons will spend the Brookside vacation time on a trip to Disneyland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Child and children will spend Easter vacation at St. Croix.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams have been spending their time in the sun at their winter home at Hillabrook Beach. In April they will depart for a two month European jaunt aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wellock arrive home today from their Hawaiian holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Giffels have been waiting out our cold Northern weather in their apartment in Palm Beach Shores on Singer Island.

Also headquarters on Singer Island are the Walter Skinners, Dale Millers and the Warren Peasars.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford West and their son, Justin, are vacationing on Oasabaw Island, Ok., at the plantation of her late parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Torrey.

Mrs. Harry D. Wise and her son, Dr. Robert F. Wise, have just returned from a holiday in Ft. Lauderdale.

Mrs. Mary Kay Haines and her son, David will spend Easter vacation in Bermuda with her father, Ralph Louias.

It. Pinkerton was in town last week.

Naturally he brought Madame Buttrick with him. Believe it or not, the happy couple had no reception with the fourth-coming Metropolitan Opera season. (Although "Buttrick" will be one of the operas presented.) The Lieutenant in our story was Phil Moon, and the lovely lady was Mrs. Moon. The occasion was the oriental dinner party given by the C. E. Waters of Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. Edgar Jolly appearing as a Korean bride, while Mr. Jolly was dressed as a Manchurian war lord. The Henry Woolfendens were dressed as a coolie and employer. Mrs. Robert Muxey and Mrs. Ed Lerehen wore authentic Chinese robes, while their husbands represented the Chinese-Irish (he is Patrick's day) in green outfits with oriental eye make up. Rev. and Mrs. John Albrecht appeared as a rice paddy worker and a charming geisha girl. Mr. and Mrs. Seyder wore placards bearing poems about their work as members of the peace corps working in the orient.

Guests enjoyed the tari yaki steak with rice, egg roll, sweet pork, spinach salad and ice cream with ginger, but all agreed it was no wonder the oriental entertainer made up his mind to be hungry as they struggled with the chop sticks provided by the Weirs.

Late stayers at the affair finally journeyed over to Oakland Hills Country Club, where they caused a small sensation in their get-ups at the St. Patrick's dinner dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Frost Jr. are spending a skiing holiday in the Laurentians.

Four young men are off on a westward-bound skiing venture. Pete and Flip Maxwell, Monty Loud and Dick Moon are heading their station wagon toward Aspen for a vacation trip which will include a stop-over in Arapahoe. Accompanying them will be Olesko ski instructor Klaus Rieder.

Mrs. Richard Ogelsby and Mrs.
