Find Unique Way To Bring in Spring

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — If you took down your Christmas tree before the first day of spring, you are a conformist.

BUT—if you didn't like Dr. and Mrs. Harry W. Free, you had a lot of fun.

This is the third year that Dr. and Mrs. Harry Free of Morningview Terrace have had their "Take Down the Christmas Tree" party. It all started out so simply putting the indoor tree outside the family room window. The family room faces two other neighbors' homes and the two neighbors had a portion for skating. They have dubbed it "Lake Bloomfield."

When neighbors learned that the Frees were going to take down their Christmas tree, they arrived with crying towels and placed daffodils on the branches after they were cut.

The second year the Frees decided to be conformists, but the neighbors wouldn't hear of it. Where the Christmas tree should be standing, the friends placed a building block with a note that said, "What do we do now on the 21st?"

The Iowa Western A Cappella Choir which has toured 14 communities during March. Dennis is also a committee member on the Student Council.

FINALIST
