Beverly-Greenfield Dance Next Friday

THE BEVERLYS—The annual Beverly-Greenfield Association dance is set for Friday night, May 18, at the Glen Oaks Country Club.

Dance committee members Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Basse and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marchetti have worked hard to make the "Spring Fling" one of the best. Eddie Shick's band will play from 9:30 p.m.-1:30 a.m. and door prizes will be drawn for the first time at the association's dance.

THE WEST Beverly Hills Sewing Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Al Stacheli on West 14 Mile Road, Tuesday, May 8, Co-hostess for the day will be Mrs. Frank Cardillo.

KATHY SIMMONS of Elizabeth entertained 12 school friends Tuesday night April 24 at a vacation get-together. After a platter session and games the guests were served Chinese food with chop sticks.

Hilarious attempts to manage the meal with chop sticks finally prompted the hostess to pass around forks.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Donaldson of Amherst on the birth of Maryanna Julia, born April 6, and joined her three young brothers at home.

For a first outing after the baby's arrival Mrs. Donaldson, her husband with another couple, visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ross in Grand Rapids for the week-end. There they were guests at a cocktail party given in their honor.

MR. AND MRS. Arthur Boelter invited all their neighbors on Verona Circle to an open-house on Sunday, April 29, and surprised everyone with the announcement that they were celebrating their 25th anniversary.

The Boelter's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Huber flew in from Chicago to be with them.

AT HOME on Lauderdale are the Thomas Paynes after their marriage earlier this year. Mrs. Payne was formerly Elizabeth Ann Forte.

The has just returned from New York where he attended a meeting of probate administrators.

MRS. MILTON Young of Pierce with the cooperation of her family had a busy week attending library and school conferences. She had charge of setting up the library booth at Cobo Hall and had Margaret and Grace Mary staff the conference. Meanwhile she sat in at a meeting. The family dashed to Pittsburgh to another convention, left there at 10 p.m. and drove all night to be back at Cobo Hall the next day.

VALLEY WOODS—The Valley Woods Branch of the WNFCA will be having their luncheon and meeting Monday, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Hans Fredrickson on Bellevue Trail.

Helen McCallan, former president of the club, will give a talk on the "Mechanics of Flower Arranging." Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Russell Seeburger, Mrs. Fred Polidan and Mrs. Frederick Westbury.
