

Pilgrim Elects Officers

At the Second Annual Meeting of Pilgrim Congregational Church of Birmingham, held May 2, Mr. Fritz Fiesseimann of 550 Larch, Birmingham, was elected Moderator.

Officers elected who will serve for the next year are Mrs. James K. Plack, 266 Larch, Birmingham, Church Clerk; Mr. William Kuller, 3506 Linwood, Royal Oak, Treasurer; Mr. LeRoy Rumbaugh, 20165 S. Greenbriar, Franklin, Deacon; Mr. Howard C. Tuttle, 6716 Spruce Drive, Birmingham, Deacon; Mrs. Harlan R. Bird, 800 Arlington, Birmingham, Deaconess; Mr. John S. Cooper, 851 Shirley Drive, Birmingham, trustee; Mr. Keith R. Petherick, 1872 Grassfield Road, Birmingham, trustee.

ELECTED TO the Board of Christian Education were Mrs. G. H. Ojala, 347 Ann St., Birmingham, and Mr. James K. Plack, Jr., 507 W. Brown St., Birmingham.

To serve on the Christian Service Committee, the members elected were: Mrs. Harold Barnes, 5905 Beach Road, Birmingham, and Mrs. John S. Cooper, 851 Shirley Drive, Birmingham. Reports of activities for the preceding year, rendered by outgoing leaders, reflected excellent progress in all phases of the program. Mr. James K. Plack, speaking for the Deacons, outlined accomplishments from the date of the congregation's founding in January of 1961. He noted that growth required a move from the original meeting place within three months from the founding date, to the present quarters at The Community House of Birmingham.

FIESSELMANN, outgoing Chairman of the Board of Trustees, advised that the financial condition of the church was excellent, and suggested that plans for building should be instituted in the coming year. Fiesseimann reported also that indebtedness on the Adams Big Beaver Road property, site of future construction, is being cleared.

Mrs. Edward W. Gabort, 1813 Derby, Birmingham, Superintendent of the church school, described the rapid growth in the Sunday School and commented on the need for expansion of the teaching staff. The congregation particularly expressed its appreciation to Mr. James N. Isham, 1230 Harrow Circle, Birmingham, for his services as Moderator, especially noting his efforts on behalf of the church's purpose to preserve the traditional Congregational way of service. Formal approval was also given to affiliation of the church with the two recently formed cooperative groups of continuing Congregational churches, the Michigan State Association and the Southern Michigan Association of Congregational Christian Churches.

THE CONGREGATION also acted to recommend transfer of the standing of its Minister, The Rev. Howard E. Bull, from the Western Michigan Association of Congregational Churches to the new Southeastern Association. Rev. Bull is a member of the Executive Committee of the State Association. The church continues its membership in the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches.

Roadside Parks Ready for Summer

The Michigan State Highway Department is ready for the summer travel season.

More than 4,000 picnic tables have been placed in about 2,600 rest stops along Michigan's state highways.

Chief Maintenance Engineer Harold J. Rathbun said the highway department will maintain nearly 2,500 individual table sites, more than 100 Roadside Parks and 25 Freeway Rest Areas this summer.

Local Woman Is Chairman for Annual Assembly

Mrs. Donald Tracy, 30480 Oak Leaf Lane, is general chairman for the 33rd annual assembly of the United Church Women of Michigan which is being held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Woodward at Hancock Avenues in Detroit yesterday and today.

Mrs. Tracy has worked diligently to line up a full and busy two days including Bible Worship led by Mrs. G. Merrill Lenox, panel discussions with Mrs. Fred Buschmeyer as moderator, departmental sessions, a report on Michigan projects such as Migrance and Foreign students at our universities, and will climax the opening day with an evening service with George Romney, nominee candidate for governor and resident of Bloomfield Hills, present to report on Michigan's Constitutional Convention.

THERE WILL be an election of officers today, with Mrs. A. D. Evans present to install the officers. The theme for the assembly is "The Church Ecumenical—Its Oneness."

Rev. Hoge Heads Unity Ctr.-B'ham

Rev. Edward J. Hoge is the new minister of the Unity-Center-Birmingham, 356 W. Maple.

Hoge, 35, was formerly the assistant minister at the Unity Center Church in Detroit. He officially replaced Ruth Carr, who has been acting center leader the last two years, on April 15, Palm Sunday.

Already Hoge has expanded the facilities of the center. A full Sunday school for youngsters 2-14 years is planned for 9:30 a.m. every Sunday. Also two Sunday services will be initiated at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

THERE ALSO will be religious educational teaching on "What Is Unity?" Thursday at 8 p.m. and a repeat class at 7 p.m. Friday. The classes will last six weeks.

Another service will be a class in interpretation of the Book of Revelation under the leadership of Samuel Gerber each Tuesday at 7:45 p.m.

Hoge is married to the former Virginia Brown. They have three children. Hoge obtained his ministerial training at the Unity School of Christianity, Missouri. He will become a full minister in June.

Combustible Roofings Spark Fire Hazards

Fire chiefs in many communities are alarmed at the re-appearance of combustible roofing on many new homes, according to a poll taken by the National Fire Protection Association.

In a recent five-year period, the NFPA points out, wind-borne sparks on roofs caused more than 82,000 serious fires which resulted in damages totaling nearly $40,000,000.

FIREMEN WHO have fought roof fires caused by wind-blown sparks say they can't understand why home owners choose to gamble with combustible roofs when fire-resistant roofing—such as asphalt shingles—is so readily available.

Of importance to the home owner is the fact that fire insurance premiums may be lower on houses with asphalt shingle roofs than on homes roofed with combustible materials.

THE NFPA POINTS out that most home fires are avoidable through such things as fire-resistant building materials, regular clean-up of basements, attics and garages and an awareness by all members of the family of the hazards of fire.

Heart Disease Chief Killer Survey Shows

Heart and circulatory diseases continue their decline as the chief causes of death in Michigan, according to a survey made by the Michigan Life Insurance Co.

Duane L. Bailey, Michigan Life's general agent, with offices in the Jenkins Building, Birmingham, reported the survey.

The survey was made among the 550,000 policyholders of Michigan Life. He said that the company found heart and circulatory diseases dropped from 56 per cent in 1950 to 44.5 per cent in 1961.

Cancer remained the same at 11.5 per cent. Accidents dropped from 11.5 per cent in 1950 to 10.6 per cent last year, he said. Suicide and homicide was at 3.4 per cent, similar for both years.

"All other" causes of death were reported at 20.3 per cent in 1961. "All other" causes are a variety of diseases of too small a volume for categorizing as an important factor.

Public Transportation Needed in Metro Area

DETROIT — There is need for a comprehensive transportation study of the Detroit metropolitan area, according to State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie.

"Such a study should cover all forms of transportation—private cars on highways, rapid rail transit, airlines and the transportation of goods in ships and trucks," Mackie said.

"On the basis of such a study, we could determine how best to gear future plans into the expanding needs of the metropolitan area. There is a likelihood that federal funds could be available for such a study and this possibility deserves to be investigated."

STATING THAT "it would be rash for me to pretend to have any specific solution" to Detroit's public transportation problems, Mackie said that in cooperation with the other commissioners and Mayor Cavanagh, "it is my hope that an improvement in the present system can be attained and the possibility of expanding this system fully explored.

"I have tried to make it clear on several occasions that the highway building program under way in the Detroit metropolitan area will not solve the needs of the people here."

"STATEWIDE, we freely admitted that our highway needs will outrun our highway revenues in the next 20 years by some $3 billion."

"What we are trying to do is to meet the most pressing needs in all parts of the state, including Detroit. Public transportation, therefore, becomes an important part in meeting the whole transportation needs of the area."

Mental Care For Children To be Discussed

The annual meeting of the Oakland County Chapter, Michigan Society for Mental Health, will be held at noon, May 24, at Devon Gables.

Dr. Clyde B. Simson, director of Children's Division, Lafayette Clinic, Detroit, will be the speaker. His topic will be "Children's Services, Past, Present and Future."

JOHN D. MACKAY, chapter president, will preside. Mrs. A. W. Nevala, chairman of the meeting, is being assisted by the Rev. John Wigley; Mrs. Palmer Bundy; Mrs. Carmi J. Odell; Elmer Hartwig, and Mrs. John Driver.

The public is invited to attend. Reservations must be in before May 22. Tickets may be obtained from the Detroit office of the Michigan Society for Mental Health, 1528 Woodward, or from Mrs. A. W. Nevala, 4045 Crocus, Pontiac.
