

South Oakland Scouts Earn Recognition by Mrs. Romney

A sea of green receding toward the exits of St. John's Episcopal Church dining room, Royal Oak, Wednesday (450 volunteers wearing the uniform of adult Girl Scouts) walked a little taller having just heard Mrs. George Romney say to them, "I congratulate you on your motivation, dedication and service."

Honor guest at the luncheon and twenty-fifth annual Southern Oakland Girl Scout Council meeting, Mrs. Romney observed in her opening remarks that the success of the Girl Scout movement is due to the love and goodness of the leaders. She went on to express her belief in the same ideals that the Girl Scout program teaches the girls—faith in God, their country and themselves.

Mrs. Romney declared that unless our young people are taught to love each other they will destroy each other, and earnestly brought out "the importance of the Fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man."

She said that each person who does one good thing is uplifting the community in which he lives.

MRS. PAUL CAREY, who has served as president of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts for the past four years conducted the business meeting. In charge of election of officers was Mrs. Donald Dickman.

Mrs. Webster Owen, Lathrup Village, was elected president to serve for three years. She has been a Girl Scout leader, served four years on Established Camp Committee, Southern Oakland; was third vice-president, Southern Oakland Girl Scouts 1957-1958; and first vice president from 1958 to 1962.

Mrs. Delbert Parry, Berkley, was elected third vice president and Mrs. Michael Bordini was elected secretary.

NEW MEMBERS of the board of directors are Mrs. Paul Day, Farmington-Novi District Chairman; Mrs. Walter Krell, Royal Oak District Chairman and Mrs. Walter Kasne, Southfield District Chairman.

Mrs. John Hart, Bloomfield Hills, is one of six members-at-

Marygrove Group Seeks Members

Birmingham alumnae of Marygrove College will entertain at a membership tea for their mothers and recent graduates Saturday at the home of Mrs. John F. Noonan, 424 Wellesley. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. August B. Hofer and Mrs. Richard J. Rottach.

MRS. DAVID Borden, in a salute to volunteers, awarded numerals to women who have been in Girl Scouting ten years and over.

Special recognition was given Mrs. Charles Tuller, selected as Volunteer of the Week by the United Community Service. She has been in Girl Scouts for 32 years.

Also honored was Mrs. Howard La Due for 20 years of service to Girl Scouts.

Mrs. J. E. Fowler, Birmingham, was given a standing ovation for her 25 years of service to Girl Scouts.

Installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Frank Schwarz. As her first act as new president of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Mrs. Owen presented Mrs. Carey with a bouquet of the Girl Scout Golden Anniversary yellow roses. This "threatened to bring sudden spring showers" Mrs. Carey admitted in her farewell speech.

Cookies for the Governor

Good things by the dozens were baked for state administrators by Birmingham Democratic Club women last week. Preparing them for the oven occupied (standing at left) Mrs. Dorothy K. Roosevelt and Mrs. John Foley. Removing them from the oven were

(from left) Mrs. John H. McVay and Mrs. Sander Levin, wife of Oakland County Democratic Chairman. The cookies were served at a Jefferson-Jackson Day reception in Detroit for Governor John B. Swainson and other state officials.

Meeting to Feature Mrs. L. C. Dibble

Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Birmingham Branch, will hold its annual meeting and luncheon Monday, May 14, at 12:30 p.m. in the Birmingham Community House.

Mrs. Nelson A. Miles, who has served as president for the past two years, will preside at the installation of new officers and will then turn this final meeting of the year over to the incoming president, Mrs. George A. Dixon.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. James A. Hunter, chairman of the day, will present Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble, who will speak on "The Small Garden, 1962 Style."

Mrs. Dibble, a former president of Birmingham WNF&G, is one of its most talented members. She has also received recognition for her garden sculptures, some of which have been on exhibition at the Scarab Club. Mrs. Dibble will illustrate her talk with colored slides.
