law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Colenso, the Dick Colensos and Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Colenso, all of Birmingham. The honor guests have lived here since 1921.

Oakland Campers Give Movie Star Big Welcome

Now that everything is ready for the Camp Oakland benefit at 8:30 tonight at Ford Auditorium, members of the "Bon Voyage" premiere committee are relaxing and enjoying the festivities.

The fun began last night at Camp Oakland, where Miss Jane Wyman was the guest of Director Bill Matus and the children who live at the Oxford camp. Miss Wyman, who co-stars in "Bon Voyage" with Fred MacMurray, arrived from Hollywood Tuesday to attend the film's initial showing.

ON HAND To greet her when she arrived at Camp Oakland were Mrs. Ben D. Mills, chairman of the Women's Committee, and Mr. Mills. Other committee members and their husbands dined with Miss Wyman and the young residents of Girls' Branch and Boys' Ranch.

They included Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills residents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Calhoun, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Shenefield, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Chambers.

For tonight, Women's Committee member Mrs. S. M. Vass, and Mr. Vass have invited friends to dinner at their home on Pilgrim Road, Birmingham. Going on to the premiere with them will be the John J. Nevins, the Thomas O. Schipps, the V. James Fouts and the Gordon L. Walkers.

MR. AND MRS. Francis L. LeVeque of Bloomfield Hills are planning to meet Mr. and Mrs. George S. Coats downtown for dinner tonight before the premiere. Mrs. Coats is Dearborn area chairman for the event, which will benefit the Camp Oakland building fund.

Later, the LeVeqs will get together with the William H. Hubers of Bloomfield Township, for an after-theatre supper.

Classmates Return

Planning to attend the reunion of the Class of 1932 of Southwestern High School are Mrs. Emil R. Friess, Mrs. Ray Heck and Mrs. J. M. Scholl, all of Birmingham. The event will be held June 15 at the Detroit school.

Marion Michele Gallaudet Is Married in Holy Name

Marion Michele Gallaudet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frances Cockrell Gallaudet, of Shadow Lane, Bloomfield Hills, spoke her marriage vows May 5 to Lt. (jg) George Van Kula Jr., USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Kula, of Detroit.

The couple revealed their vows at a 12:30 o'clock ceremony in Holy Name Church, Birmingham, after which a reception was given in the home of the bride's parents.

BRIDAL ROBES of candlelight, pear de sole were chosen by the bride for her wedding, tradition playing a part since the gown had been worn by her sister for her wedding. It was fashioned with a princess waist and softly flowing skirt which extended at the back into a court train. Her veil was of heirloom Venetian lace on point d'esprit, first worn by her maternal grandmother Mrs. Edson F. Gallaudet of Pine Orchard, Conn., who was here for the wedding. Her bouquet was fashioned of white roses, violets, lilies of the valley and ivy.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Ralph A. Sturgess III of New Britain, Conn. Another sister, Andree, was maid of honor; Mrs. John Johns of New Baltimore and Ann Margaret Van Kula, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid, respectively.

They were all dressed alike in light green pear de sole, wore ivy wreath crowns, matching ivory-colored shoes, and carried cascades of white freesia and ivy. Best man was Charles B.

Shubeck of Malibu, Calif., an uncle of the bridegroom, and ushers included Thomas and David VanKula, brothers of the bridegroom; Edson F. Gallaudet II and Thomas Gallaudet, brothers of the bride.

MRS. VAN KULA

MRS. GALLAUDET chose a blue print costume suit of Italian silk for her daughter's wedding, with which she wore a matching whimsy and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Following a wedding trip through Canada and New England, the bridal couple will live at the Bainbridge Naval Training center, Bainbridge, Maryland, where Lt. (jg) Van Kula will be an instructor in the Naval Preparatory School.

For traveling the new Mrs. Van Kula wore a navy blue costume suit with red and white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

With Airlines

Martha Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Miller, 1119 Hillside, Birmingham, has completed her training at McConnell Airline School in Minneapolis, Minn., and is now at the American Airlines office in Chicago.

Tracy's Here

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Ricketts (Martha Marshall, of Detroit), 3117 Peeble Lane, Westchester Village, announce arrival of their second daughter and third child, Tracy Adair, on April 27.
