Take a hint from the beauty-form schedule: A vegetable or fruit juice cocktail taken a half-hour before dinner (sip slowly preferably through a straw) will cut the appetite and make second helpings unthinkable.

A one-day liquid diet or one liquid meal daily for seven days is a favorite summertime way to pare excess poundage and/or keep trim. Make sure the liquid drink is healthful and not a mere concoction.

Altrusa Members Set a Rapid Pace

From publicity volunteer Mary Spaulding comes news that a number of local Altrusas are buzzing about these days, their fingers in a dozen pies, their activities keeping them on a travel circuit more and more travel experts are suggesting that women travelers take along a wig to bridge the haunting hours between hair appointments. By the way have you checked on the new beauty service that an overseas airline offers its women customers? It makes advance salon appointments on the major stops of the tour.

Incoming President Mrs. Leslie Shanks, who is also treasurer of the Altrusa Fifth District, went to Parkersburg, W. Va., recently for a district conference. And, as of this week-end, there will be a District Workshop in Flint that eight local members will attend.

THE GROUP INCLUDES Mrs. Shanks, Dr. Ethel Calhoun, Mrs. Carl Woulberger, Dr. Josh Forcett, Mrs. Lawrence Hark, Kay Veldner and June Keil. The workshop, May 5, is an all-day affair in which clubs throughout the state participate. District officers will be present.

On May 20, at 11 a.m., a breakfast will be given at MSUO for local Altrusas, their guests and any members of the public interested. Tickets may be acquired through members, but reservations must be in by Thursday, May 17. Dr. Mary Ann Cusack is chairman of the breakfast.

Chancellor Durand R. Varner will be the guest speaker, his talk dealing with MSUO, its objectives and its future.

If you are buying, selling, renting or swapping, The Birmingham Eccentric Classified Ads will do an outstanding job for you.
