Beverly Hills Hostess Club Appoints Five New Directors

By NORMA WHOLIHAN
MI 6-2397

The Beverly Hills Hostess Club met April 17 for coffee and a business session at the home of Mrs. Charles Quick of Devonshire. Mrs. Geo. Theising was co-success.

On the agenda was the election of new officers. Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft became new president; Mrs. Robert Kowan, first vice-president; Mrs. Geo. Dettlinger, second vice-president; Mrs. John Cochran, secretary and Mrs. Geo. Arms as treasurer. On Sat. May 19, the club will gather at Devon Gables for cocktails, buffet dinner and dancing at the annual meeting.

MR. AND MRS. Robert McKee of Beechwood and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Flint of Pleasant Ridge returned Thursday, May 3 from a jaunt through the famous horticultural gardens near Asheville, and Charleston, South Carolina. They drove to the Middleton, Cypress and Biltmore Gardens.

FIFTY members of Queen of Mothers Bowling League held their annual banquet at the Maplewood Club House in April where trophies were awarded to the year's winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Embrey and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stone received the top honors for the highest scoring team.

ON THURS., May 12, Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Bailey will be attending the Northwestern Dental Club's annual May dinner dance at the Meadowbrook Country Club.

Dr. Bailey will be installed as president for the 1962-63 season. This will be a real gala affair as it is the only meeting open to the ladies during the year.

VACATION trips at Easter time have become more popular each year and many of our Beverly Hillites made trips with their families. Among them were Dr. and Mrs. Neal Brady of Riverside who took Diane, Cynthia, David and Stephen to Washington D. C. where they stayed with Mrs. Brady's parents, the A. W. Cornacks.

The Bradys have both lived in the capital and return there every year to see old friends. This time the children enjoyed a special treat by participating in an Easter egg hunt.

THE DON' Maloures of Beverly Road and their four children had planned on a Washington trip but were unable to make reservations so shifted to Chicago for their vacation.

They toured the Museum of Science and Industry, the Shedd Aquarium and also saw the porpoises perform at the newly opened pool at the Brookfield Zoo.

MRS. PETER Corden of Devonshire took young Tom and Bob Corden to visit her husband's parents in Clearwater, Fla. for a week's fun and play on the beaches.

The G. Camerons of Devonshire, their family and Mrs. Cameron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Sauer of Franklin attended a 6 a.m. sunrise service and breakfast Easter morning near West Branch.

They were happy to find the ice gone from the lake and since their cottage is in rather a remote area, the children saw many deer and found them quite tame.

CO-CHAIRMAN Mrs. Robert Kratt, Mrs. K. Spodeck and Mrs. Jane Mayorchaik worked hard and felt rewarded that the annual confirmation dinner of the Ascension Lutheran Church was such a success.

The ladies and their helpers planned and served over 120 dinners, even joining the group in confirmation dinner of the Ascension.

The proceeds from the dinner will go to help maintain the Lutheran Camp Concordia near Grand Rapids.

MRS. ADAM Zimmerman of Riverside was hostess for her church guild's business meeting and annual bridge tournament Wednesday, May 5. Many Beverly Hills mothers joined their daughters as models for the fashion show Saturday, May 5, at Marian High School.

This is the third year the show has been given with the co-operation of several Birmingham stores. Proceeds from the event will be used for equipment for the school. Ticket co-chairman was Mrs. Arthur Harrington.
