Bloomfield Boys Plan Party by Themselves

By VELMA MCCANE
MA 6-6530

BERKSHIRES

That moment of pride happened last week when Leo, 9, and George, 8, told their parents they were going to plan and organize Gregory's birthday party.

Using their allowance savings, the two boys treated Lee and Tighe Keating, J. C. Malpeli, David Lyman, Mark Kargol, Greg Blake, Tommy Naeypart and George Peck to see Simple Simon at the Vanguard Theatre. After the play the boys dashed back to Old Mill for cake and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kasum live at Old Mill Rd.

MEADOWLAKE

The Dutch boat Stottendam became hotel headquarters for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Copeland

Round Table Event

Virginia Naylon, 32338 Sheridan Ave., a member of the Birmingham School System, will be a discussion leader at the final 1961-62 meeting of the Detroit Chapter of the Salve Regina Conference of Catholic Art. The meeting will take place at Marygrove College in Detroit on Saturday.

Open Hills Home

Installation of officers will follow a noon luncheon meeting of the South Oakland alumnae of Kappa Delta Sorority. Mrs. Graeme B. Supple will be hostess at her home in Bloomfield Hills, assisted by Mrs. R. Vern Richter.

Wigs on Display

Birmingham-Franklin Group of the S.O.C. Hadasash will give a Mother's Day installation luncheon at Kingsley Inn Tuesday. There will be a showing of wigs by the Bel-Lynn Beauty Salon.

WESTCHESTER

The Civil war route became real and fascinating to the Andrews Seeds and their sons, Andy Jr., David and Doug very recently. The "Sentimental Journey" started at Gettysburg, Va., continued to Washington D. C., Williamsburg, Va., and ended at Charlottesville, Va.

WESTCHESTER

A musicale during the cocktail hour highlighted the Westchester Women's club annual meeting at the Forest Lake Country Club, on May 2.

After the luncheon an "art showing" was given by members of the Westchester Art group, a branch of the Women's club.

An extra added attraction of bat fashions by Brennans concluded the afternoon of enjoyment.

CRANBROOK - MAPLE

Cranbrook Maple Association President Tom Loring welcomed Jerry Orloff on his board recently as Civic Project chairman.

Another new and welcome responsibility in the Orloff household is Patricia Susan, born March 2.

Mrs. William Scripps at Ease, Completes Charity Ball Chores

Mrs. William J. Scripps of Bennington Drive, Bloomfield Hills, is feeling a little more relaxed this week now that her special job in making the Carousel Ball a success is all wrapped up, so to speak.

She had the highly profitable responsibility of seeing to the program "ad book." Now with "put to bed," Ginny Scripps can draw a sigh of relief, sit back, and accept kudos—chiefly because the Women's Division of the Greater Detroit Chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children is already more than $18,000 richer because of this particular effort.

It is the Women's Division, MAEDC, which is sponsoring the second annual Carousel Ball, slated for the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel Saturday evening, May 19.

BALL CHAIRMAN Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf of Bloomfield Hills appointed the following area women on the committee: Mrs. Maynard R. Andrae, Mrs. Henry S. Booth, Mrs. Dean Coffin, Mrs. Richard A. Freund, Mrs. Ernest A. Jones, Mrs. Carl H. Knoll, Mrs. L. Raymond Twyman, Mrs. Edward E. Wilson.

Cover of the program book with its gaily Elizabethan motif, featuring a jaunty carousel adutter with apple green and lilac ribbons, gives a hint of the breath of spring decor.

Ball patrons may anticipate a silken walled ballroom, a hint of the carousel in the bandstand decor and fine apple green and lilac trappings in the Crystal Ballroom and the Founders' Room, where cocktails will be served preceding an 8:30 p.m. dinner.

And along with all of this, there'll be music for dancing by Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians and entertainment by star-of-the-evening, Gordon MacRae. Also present will be the Charles Aldrich trio.

OTHERS FROM Birmingham-Bloomfield area active in the Women's Division and working toward success of the Carousel Ball include Mrs. Edward F. Avis, Mrs. Packer Avis, Mrs. William H. Breech, Mrs. William Bridge, Mrs. Rinehart S. Bright, Mrs. M. M. Burgess, Mrs. Winthrop B. Conrad, Mrs. William S. Cooper, Mrs. William Cope, Mrs. Robert C. Fisher.

Still others: Mrs. Edgar B. Flint, Mrs. Henry C. Forster Jr., Mrs. W. Norman Hawkins, Mrs. Jesse P. Judd, Mrs. Simon Knudsen, Mrs. Jack LeVan, Mrs. William C. Newberg, Mrs. Joseph F. Paulus, Mrs. J. D. Richardson Jr., Mrs. Joseph Rishon, Mrs. George W. Romney, Mrs. Carl J. Snyder, Mrs. Robert H. Taylor, Mrs. Robert C. Vanderkloot, Mrs. Frank E. Voorhees, Mrs. Harry R. Walsh, Mrs. Charles L. Wilson Jr.

ECONO-CREST
COIN-OPERATED DRY CLEANING

A few years ago, coin-operated dry cleaning could not have been possible. Now, thanks to research and experience, the finest cleaning available... ECONO-CREST, is the simplest to do. It is a product of American Laundry Machinery Industries (Division of McGraw-Edison Company), world's largest manufacturer of commercial laundry and dry cleaning equipment.

ECONO-CREST coin-operated dry cleaning is:

- SAFE—for all dry cleanable fabrics, handles them gently, fluffs and deodorizes.
- EASY—all you do is put your clothing in the big ECONO-CREST machine, and drop the coins in the chute. Nothing to add. It's easier than using a washing machine. Even youngsters can do it!
- NO MESS—Unlike laundering, you touch no water or cleaning compounds. You can use ECONO-CREST while wearing your "Sunday best."
- FAST—a complete run through ECONO-CREST... cleaning, drying, freshening, deodorizing... takes just 45 minutes. Less time than it takes to wash and dry a load of laundry!
